

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

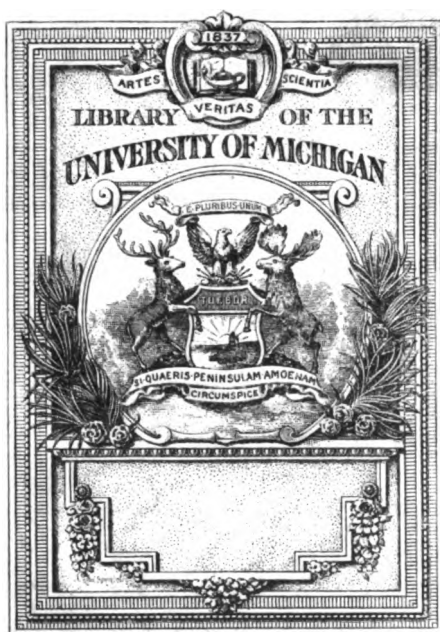

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

CALENDARS.

Instructions to Editors.

The Master of the Rolls desires to call the attention of the Editors of Calendars to the following considerations, with a view to secure uniformity of plan in the important works on which they are engaged :—

He is anxious to extend, as far as is consistent with proper economy and despatch, the utility of the Calendars of State Papers now publishing under his control : 1st. As the most efficient means of making the national archives accessible to all who are interested in historical inquiries ; 2nd. As the best justification of the liberality and munificence of the Government in throwing open these papers to the public, and providing proper catalogues of their contents at the national expense.

The greater number of the readers who will consult and value these works can have little or no opportunity of visiting the Public Record Office, in which these papers are deposited. The means for consulting the originals must necessarily be limited when readers live at a distance from the metropolis ; still more if they are residents of Scotland, Ireland, distant colonies, or foreign states. Even when such an opportunity does exist, the difficulty of mastering the original hands in which these papers are written will deter many readers from consulting them. Above all, their great variety and number must present formidable obstacles to literary inquirers, however able, sanguine, and energetic, when the information contained in them is not made accessible by satisfactory Calendars.

The Master of the Rolls considers that, without superseding the necessity of consulting the originals, every Editor ought to frame his Calendar in such a manner that it shall present, in as condensed a form as possible, a correct index of the contents of the papers described in it. He considers that the entries should be so minute as to enable the reader to discover not only the general contents of the originals, but also what they do not contain. If the information be not sufficiently precise, if facts and names be omitted or concealed under a vague and general description, the reader will be often misled, he will assume that where the abstracts are silent as to information to be found in the documents, such information does not exist ; or he will have to examine every original in detail, and thus one great purpose will have been lost for which these Calendars have been compiled.

As the documents are various, the Master of the Rolls considers that they will demand a corresponding mode of treatment. The following rules are to be observed :—

1st. All formal and official documents, such as letters of credence, warrants, grants, and the like, should be described as briefly as possible.

2nd. Letters and documents referring to one subject only should be catalogued as briefly as is consistent with correctness. But when they contain miscellaneous news, such a description should be given as will enable a reader to form an adequate notion of the variety of their contents.

3rd. Wherever a letter or paper is especially difficult to decipher, or the allusions more than ordinarily obscure, it will be advisable for the Editor to adhere, as closely as is consistent with brevity, to the text of the document. He is to do the same when it contains secret or very rare information.

4th. Where the Editor has deciphered letters in cipher, the decipher may be printed at full length. But when a contemporary or authorised decipher exists it will be sufficient to treat the cipher as an ordinary document.

5th. Striking peculiarities of expression, proverbs, manners, &c. are to be noticed.

6th. Original dates are to be given at the close of each entry, that the reader may know the exact evidence by which the marginal dates are determined.

7th. Where letters are endorsed by the receivers and the date of their delivery specified, these endorsements are to be recorded.

8th. The number of written pages of each document is to be specified, as a security for its integrity, and that readers may know what proportion the abstract bears to the original.

9th. The language of every document is to be specified. If, however, the greater part of the collection be in English, it will be sufficient to denote those only which are in a different tongue.

10th. Where documents have been printed, a reference should be given to the publication.

11th. Each series is to be chronological.

12th. The Prefaces of Editors, in explanation of documents in the volume, are not to exceed fifty pages, unless the written permission of the Master of the Rolls to the contrary be obtained.

* * Editors employed in foreign archives are to transcribe at full length important and secret papers.

CALENDAR -	1-688
GENERAL INDEX -	689-821

P R E F A C E .

THE plan of the present volume of Calendar is similar to that of the preceding volume ("Calendar of Treasury Books and Papers, Vol. I."). In the selection of sources, however, two changes, both suggested by experience, have been made.

Firstly.—The calendaring of the series entitled "Declarations of surpluses" has been discontinued. The entries in this (short) series of volumes relate only to the accounts of the Aggregate Fund, the General Fund, the South Sea Company's Fund, and the Account between the Exchequer and the Sinking Fund—the latter of these four items being only a deduction from the former three.

The substance of these entries is contained in quarterly statements in the "Money Book," where the figures of the income and liability of the General and Aggregate Funds are given at full, quarter by quarter (see pp. 123, 132, &c., infra).

Secondly.—The calendaring of the series of the "Public Disposition Book" has also been discontinued.

In preparing the money table (which appears year by year as Table II. in the present Calendar), the authorities or sources have been taken in the following order:—

- (1.) "Money Book."
- (2.) "King's Warrant Book."
- (3.) "Order Book."
- (4.) Miscellanea, such as "Warrants not relating to Money," "Letter Book," "Customs Book," "North Britain Book," &c.

The entries in the "Money Book" represent such payments as were initiated or voted directly by the Lords of the Treasury. They are mostly, but not by any means invariably, duplicated in the "Order Book."

The entries in the "King's Warrant Book" represent such payments as originated rather or nominally with the King, and concern, but not invariably, gifts of Royal Bounty or pensions, Royal presents to Ambassadors, &c., the Privy Purse, the Royal Household, and so on. These entries are, as a rule, but not invariably, duplicated in the "Order Book," and not in the "Money Book."

A third series of payments, viz., mostly, those to Colonial Governors, appear in the "Order Book," without previously appearing in either "Money Book" or "King's Warrant Book." Similarly, and as a matter of course, periodical payments made under a previously dated dormant warrant appear, but not invariably, in the "Order Book" alone.

The entries from sources (4) "Miscellanea" do not require particularising. They concern only payments for special establishments or purposes.

The question of the relation of the "Public Disposition Book" to the above enumerated four sets of sources is a most difficult one. But in the main that relation appears to be as follows. Sets of payments, whether derived from or entered in sources (1), (2), (3), or (4), may be lumped together to form one total, and included in one letter of direction, authorising the payment of that total out of such and such a fund. Clearly, therefore, it is at once impossible and unnecessary to work the "Public Disposition Book" in compiling Table II., the entries being merely duplicate, without in many cases containing any of the details which would enable a complete identification to be made with the entry, say, in the "Money Book." For example, certain payments, say to the undersheriffs of London and Middlesex, appear in the "Money Book" for rewards for arrests of highway robbers and murderers. As a rule, these entries will also appear in the "Order Book." In both, the details of the reward (the person claiming, the person arrested, the crime committed) appear in full, and render an identification of the two entries perfectly easy. In the "Public Disposition Book" no details appear. The net sum only appears as one item in a long table of items forming one total. So for payments of Royal bounty; so for payments for special services to His Majesty, and so on. When, therefore, as frequently happens, the payment is one which occurs again and again, and is for an exactly similar amount, it is impossible to identify the item in the "Public Disposition Book"—though it is morally certain that the entry in this latter is a duplicate of one either in the "Money Book," or the "Order Book," or the "King's Warrant Book," or two or more of them.

Probably seven-eighths of the entries in the "Public Disposition Book" are of the above nature. There is one small but important class of payments which do not fall under this category, and which appear to be peculiar to the "Public Disposition Book," viz., payments on account of imprests. An imprest was simply a credit fund of so much, opened for such and such an establishment—Army, Navy, Ordnance, &c., &c.—to draw upon. These imprests appear once for all in Table II., from whatever source they may be drawn. The various separate smaller payments exhausting the imprests appear in the "Public Disposition Book," but in such a way as to render the identification of the particular imprest account almost impossible. To enter those separate smaller payments in Table II., as well as the imprest itself, would be to double the amount actually paid to any source, say the Navy. By rejecting the smaller items, therefore, and by standing entirely by the imprest, it is possible to form a tolerably correct idea of the sums actually paid to any of the establishments. It may be feared that by such a course the details of the payments exhausting such and such an imprest are lost. This, however, is not so. As a rule, the items exhausting the various imprests to the great offices or departments—the Royal Household, or the Navy, &c.—were voted separately and specifically by the Lords of the Treasury, and they appear in the “Minute Book,” from which source they are stated in the present Calendar in the text. As far as it is humanly possible to deal with so perplexing an authority as the “Public Disposition Book,” it seems safely certain that none of the details contained in it are omitted from the present Calendar.

On the other hand, it must be borne in mind by students making use of Table II. that certain minor payments (such payments, that is, as are intended on account of or as going towards exhausting a certain imprest or credit) appear in the “Money Book” or “Order Book,” and as coming from such a source they are necessarily entered in the Table. In so far as such entries do actually appear, they will lead to a falsification of the account if any attempt is made to treat them as homogeneous items and to add them up. The greatest care, therefore, is needed in the use of this Table for statistical purposes.

As to the general bearing of the documentary matter contained in the present Calendar on the financial history of England under George II., it has been thought desirable to postpone the general introduction until the close of the reign is reached, an arrangement which will make possible a general introduction of a more complete nature, and which will further enable papers of accounts (e.g., Statements of the National Debt or of the Sinking Fund, &c.) to be treated with more detail than is possible either in the Calendar itself or in a brief introduction.

January 4. 1. Letters patent by the King revoking the letters patent of 1730, May 8, which appointed Spencer Lord (now Earl) of Wilmington Lord Privy Seal, and constituting Abraham Stanyan and Robert Jackson Commissioners for the Privy Seal, with a fee of 365*l.* per annum. [King's Warrant Book XXX. pp. 120-1.]

January 5. 2. J. Scrope to the Comptrollers of Army Accounts transmitting for examination from the Lords of the Treasury Thomas Missing's lists of the garrison victualled at Gibraltar, 1730, October 19 to November 15. [Letter Book XIX. p. 22.]

3. Same to Mr. Burchett, for the Commissioners of the Navy and victualling to transmit the estimates proper to be laid before the House of Commons in the ensuing session for the Navy and Victualling, 1731. [Ibid.]

4. Same to the Paymaster General of the Forces for similar estimates for the service of the forces; to the Master General of the Ordnance for same, for land and sea services; and to the Commissioners of the Navy for an account of the debt of the navy as it stood 1730, Christmas. [Ibid., pp. 22-3.]

January 5. 5. Report of Dun. Forbes, Lord Advocate of Scotland, and Ch. Areskine, Solicitor General of Scotland, to the Lords of the Treasury on the petition of the town of Cupar, presented through John Drummond, their representative in Parliament, for a lease of the tithes issuing out of the town lands. The family of the Earl of Rothes has enjoyed the said tithes under repeated leases from 1674 to 1711, in which latter year the present earl's father, who was Provost of Cupar, obtained a renewal of his lease for 19 years. From the Reformation down, it has been the care of the Scottish princes to prevent strangers having a title to demand tithes of other men's properties, and that by establishing certain rules whereby the proprietor might have in most cases a judicial valuation of his tithes and buy them at nine years' purchase. By an Act of 1633, cap. 17, a general provision to the above effect was made, except as for tithes belonging to bishops and other dignified clergymen. This provision has been further explained by several succeeding Acts, and is now the law of the land. Tithes belonging to bishops were not subject to this provision, yet as often as by the abolition of episcopacy bishops' tithes have come to be vested in the Crown, the Exchequer, has generally shown the same equitable favour to proprietors of lands from which bishops' tithes arose by preferring them to the lease of such tithes at moderate compositions. As a matter of grace, conformable to the general intention of the law of uniting tithes with the property, the Crown, upon the suppression of episcopacy, directed, by letters under the sign manual, that the Lords of the Treasury of Scotland should prefer proprietors of lands to leases of all bishops' tithes, and give public notice of this royal benevolence, to the end such proprietors might be prepared to farm the tithes of their own lands. Notwithstanding this practice of the Exchequer Court, it is in His Majesty's power to order the letting the lease of the tithes in question to any person as freely as the bishops might have done; but submit it, whether there are any circumstances in the Earl of Rothes' case of weight enough to dispense with the general rule established as above.

Edinburgh, 1731, January 5. 3 pages.

Appending:—Copy of a sign manual of Wm. III. dated 1696-7, March 12, directed to the Lords of the Exchequer in Scotland, declaring the King's pleasure that when leases of tithes belonging to bishoprics expire and new leases come to be granted, proprietors should be preferred in the first case to the lease of their own tithes, they offering a reasonable duty. Publication to be made of this so that those concerned may come in and claim. 1 page.

Mr. Grey's petition for a term in reversion of the term in being upon a grant of the lighthouses at Orford Ness, &c. which has been long in his family, read and referred to the Attorney General for report.

John Airy's petition read for extraordinary charges in making his remittances as receiver of the taxes for Durham and Northumberland in regard the receivers of Westmorland and Cumberland have been allowed the same. As the allowance is made with respect to the smallness of the receipt and not to the remoteness of the place, and as the receivership of Durham and Northumberland is not one of the small receipts nominated for the said allowances by a former resolution, their Lordships do not think fit to deviate from same.

A petition of the Governor and Company of Copper Mines in Wales for the silver which they bring into the mint to be coined into large money as well as small, as they shall see occasion, and for the large money to be marked with distinguishing letters and marks in manner as the small money used to be, read and the necessary warrants ordered.

Peter Nice attending a petition concerning a concealment made by the late Sir John Lambert, one of the South Sea directors, is to be told that the same concerns the South Sea Company and their Lordships will not interfere therein.

I.

Prefixing :—Particular of the former recited lease.

[Crown Lease Book II. pp. 177-81.]

9. Same from same to same for preparation of a lease to Edith College, spinster, for 30 years from 1749, February 12, at the ancient rent of 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* without fine, of the tenement situate in that part of the Palace of Whitehall called the Cockpit, abutting ex anteriore parte on the garden late of James Lord Stanhope, north on a passage of the Archbishop of Canterbury's, east on the staircase of the Commissioners of Trade, and south on the passage leading from St. James's Park to the Treasury Chambers, and leased by letters patent of 12 February, 5 Geo. I. to Edith College.

Prefixing :—Particular of the premises.

- January 8. 11. The petition of Henry Grey, Esq. representing that he is possessed of five several lighthouses erected at Orford Ness and Winterton Ness, in Norfolk and Suffolk, by a grant from the Crown for 35 years, of which 24 unexpired on April 13 next and that he has spent above 2,000*l.* in rebuilding and repairing same which he found in a ruinous condition, and had lately the misfortune to have one of them washed away by the sea; and praying a longer term in the premises in consideration of his attachment to the Protestant succession; referred to the Attorney General for his opinion. [Crown Lease Book II. p. 149.]

January 8. 12. Report of the Commissioners of Customs, London, to the Lords of the Treasury, on the petition of Mark Weyland and 14 other merchants, traders to Valencia, concerning the tare on Denia raisins imported. A dispute concerning this arose in February 1728-9, the merchants demanding 4 lbs. per basket as tare on Denia raisins, agreeably to the book of tares printed with the book of rates. On a careful taring of some of the baskets, they did not come out 2½ lbs. but 3 lbs. was allowed as the turn of the scale, and the said practice has been observed ever since. The allowances set down in the table of usual tares are not settled by law, and are frequently altered upon cause. In cases of disputes, the merchants and officers usually choose a number of packages and tare them, and the merchants often demand and are allowed more, as well as less, than is set down in the tare table.

Minuted:—1730-1, January 12: "My Lords will speak to the Commissioners of Customs about this before they determine."

Appending:—(a.) Petition in question to the Lords of the Treasury from several merchants, on behalf of themselves and others trading to the kingdom of Valencia. Minuted:—With minute of reference dated 1730, December 2. 1 sheet.

(b.) A paper of "instances in the port of London where the merchants have insisted of being allowed more than is set down in the table of tariffs." 1½ pages.

[Treasury Board Papers CCLXXV. No. 2.]

January 9. 13. The Commissioners of Wine Licences to [John Scrope?] concerning their account of the five years' arrears. Many of the rents reserved on wine licences are still unpaid. Some will doubtless be lost by death or insolvency, but orders have been given to commence prosecutions immediately, and many of the defaulters are coming in daily. For the future, propose that the tenants should pay their rents for the ensuing year at the time of granting their licences, or that the times of the commencement and expiration of the licences may be altered from Lady Day to Michaelmas, between which time and Christmas, when the yearly accounts are made up for the auditor, the greatest part of the rents due on same will be paid in. concerning the tare of Denia raisins. The Commissioners report that in taring the packages the usual practice has been observed, which they see no reason to alter. The merchants represent that the reducing the tare by this practice to 3 lb. from 4 lb. a basket, allowed them without innovation for 20 years past, will be a great prejudice to their trade. The Commissioners to attend on Tuesday next.

The Earl of Sutherland to be paid the quarter on his annuity due Christmas last.

An anonymous letter, dated December 31 ultimo, to the Chancellor of the Exchequer read, to call on the York Buildings Company to clear their account with the Government, and also an extract of the several minutes and proceedings at the Treasury relating to the said company. There still remains due 12,000*l.* from the Company on the purchase of Widrington Estate in England, and 18,000–19,000*l.* on account of other estates in Scotland, as by the minute of 1729, May 21. Mr. Paxton to be ordered to forward the cause depending in the Exchequer against the Company on the Widrington Estate account, and the Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland to be requested to state what proceedings are carrying on there against same to compel them to complete their purchases, and to quicken same.

Order for the issue of 1,000*l.* to the Treasurer of the Chamber for the messengers on account of their foreign voyages, as by the Duke of Newcastle's letter of the 9th instant.

Petition read from Matthew Beechcroft and others for leave to unload a cargo of currants from the "Braganza," now at Harwich, to a smaller vessel for Amsterdam, where the "Braganza" was first consigned but refused admittance on supposition of coming from places infected. Referred to the Commissioners of Customs.

Sir John Stanley and Mr. Walker, attending for the Commissioners of Customs concerning the merchants' demands of tare on Denia raisins, inform their Lordships that the merchants have for many years uninterruptedly had an allowance of 4*lb.* tare on each basket. But of late the packages have been observed to be lighter, and on taking new tare (which is not to be refused) they found that the baskets averaged not above 2½*lb.* Yet they allowed 3*lb.* giving the turn of the scale. The difference in value for goods now in question is not much, but the consequence of yielding may be great, as there are 200-300 sorts of goods subject to tare. It is the more unreasonable for the merchants to insist thereupon, because at all times they have had the advantage of being allowed more than is set down in the Table of Tare upon trial at their request, which is never refused.

Many instances of this were read to their Lordships out of a paper exhibited by the said Commissioners. The merchants attending being called in, urged the badness of the fruit trade, the difficulties of clearing at the Custom House, several causes of the lightness of the package, the great want of their goods, but principally the many years the allowance of 4^{lb}. tare has been made them, and then withdrew. Their Lordships, consulting with the Commissioners, are of opinion that the Tare Table annexed to the book of rates is the rule to be adhered to, subject nevertheless to alterations either on behalf of the Crown or of the merchants, as occasion arises. As a matter of favour to the merchants in this instance alone, their Lordships agree that the deposits, made by them to answer the duty for the difference of tare between 3^{lb}. and 4^{lb}. demanded, be restored to them.

The petition of John McNeill, Collector of Customs at Fort William [to the Lords of the Treasury], setting forth that at the commencement of the Union there was little business in that part of the country, and the officers being only preventive, were appointed at small salaries, and particularly the Collector, at 25*l.* per annum, he himself being appointed in 1726; that of late the fishing happening mostly in the Highland Isles thereabout has occasioned several exportations of fish from that port, and since the working of the lead mines in that country considerable quantities of lead and lead ore are exported every season, the duties of which are considerable, beside lead and iron ore exported, and coal imported coastwise. In 1723 the salaries of the officers in Caithness, &c. were augmented. Therefore prays an increase of salary to 40*l.* per annum, living in the Highlands of Scotland

45. Present:—Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Dodington, Mr. Clayton.

The report of the Commissioners of Customs of January 8th ultimo read, on Henry Davenant's memorial to be returned the duties paid by him many years since on goods imported from Leghorn and Geneva, which belonged to him as envoy to several princes in Italy, and had been used in his house. The Commissioners certify that the goods in question did not come under the denomination of furniture, and were therefore chargeable, and are constantly paid, and that a retrospect allowance in such case would occasion great sums to be paid out of revenue long since returned into the Exchequer and appropriated. Their Lordships agree and adhere to the said report.

On the memorial of the Paymaster of the Forces of the 1st instant, transmitting Sir Joseph Eyles's proposal for remitting the subsistence to Minorca and Gibraltar, from 1730-1, February 24 to April 24 following, and acquainting their Lordships that the rates of exchange are as usual, said proposal was read and agreed to as follows:—

15,000 dollars for Port Mahon at sight, payable in gold at 55*d.* per dollar.

24,000 dollars for Gibraltar at sight, payable in gold at 54½*d.* per dollar. [Treasury Minute Book XXVI. p. 394.]

February 9. 46. John Viscount Percival and Sir Philip Parker Long, Baronet, to John Scrope, forwarding a second petition from the Corporation of Harwich concerning the great danger the town is in, together with the lands purchased by the Government, for want of immediate defence against the daily encroachment of the sea. Consider it highly necessary no time should be lost beyond this summer, knowing what a dangerous condition they are in and the importance of the place to the Government, and that every year's delay since Captain Horneck's report, made soon after the purchase of those lands, has greatly enhanced the charge the Government must now be at to effectually secure them. 1 page.

Appending:—(a.) The petition of the mayor, aldermen, and capital burgesses and chief inhabitants of Harwich to the Lords of the Treasury. By virtue of several Acts of Parliament of 7 & 8 Queen Anne, for the better fortifying Portsmouth, Chatham, and Harwich, divers lands and tenements at and near Harwich were vested in trustees for the use of the Crown. Since the purchase thereof, many acres of those lands adjoining the sea, called the Beacon lands, have, for want of proper fencing, been wasted away by the washing of the tide. By this means, the town is almost environed with the sea; the Forelands are much damnified, and in particular the foundations of the great wharf or quay called the Custom House Quay. Pray repair of same. 1 page.

(b.) The memorial of Percival and Long to the same. Since the last petition from the Corporation to the Lords of the Treasury, presented in February 1730-1, the sea has, for want of walling, gained so considerably on one side as must, within some years, render the town an island, and before winter, threaten the entire washing away the Custom House with other houses situated on the said quay.

Endorsed :—"They may proceed to repair to the amount of the money in their hands if it does not exceed 300*l*." 2 pages.

Appending:—(a.) Particular and constat made out by W. Lowndes, auditor, and dated 1730, July 22, with memorandum by same as follows: "His late Majesty King Wm. I think it advisable in any grant to be made of the premises that the usual covenants for repairs and a proviso for enrolment thereof with the auditor of the premises should be inserted therein."

102. John Lord Balmerino and Cupar [to John Scrope ?]. The Barons of the Exchequer have recommended writer's petition to the Lords of the Treasury. The late Queen designed him a greater favour. Appending :—(a.) Report of the Barons of the Exchequer, Scotland, dated Edinburgh, 1730-1, February 19, to the Lords of the Treasury, on the representation of John Lord Balmerino and Cupar as below. It appears by the declaration of Mr. James Elphinston, a senator of the College of Justice, son of the said lord, and by a report of Sir James Stewart and Mr. William Carmichael, late Advocate and Solicitor General for Scotland, that Queen Anne subscribed a warrant, 1708, March 6, to pass the Privy Seal of Scotland, granting to the said Lord the bygone casualties of ward, non-entry, &c. of the lands and oysrs lying within the lordships of Balmerino and Cupar for two 19 years, and discharging him and his heirs of the blench duties payable for the lordship of Cupar and Balmerino, extending to 24*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.* sterling per annum for the same period of two 19 years, from 1706, July. Said warrant was not allowed by the Court to pass the Seal, being conceived not regular, and is now missing. Supposing the grant had passed the Seal, it could extend to discharge only the blench duties to the death of Queen Anne, amounting to 197*l.* 16*s.* from which time to July 1730, the yearly blench duties to which the said land is chargeable, come to

(b.) Balmerino's representation concerning the remission of the yearly blench duty of 101 pounds Scots on the lordship of Balmerino, and 204 pounds Scots on the lordship of Cupar, in all equal to 25*l.* 8*s.* 4*d.* sterling, and concerning remission of arrears of same from 1706 as has been done by His Majesty's predecessors in consideration of the good services of his family, which he prays, being under prosecution in the Exchequer Court, Scotland.

Provided that an account of the distribution of the said sum be annually exhibited by the General Assembly to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury or the Barons of the Exchequer, Scotland.

109. Charles Delafaye to John Scrope. Conveying the Duke of Newcastle's requests to the Lords of the Treasury for a further gratification of 50*l.* to one Mahomet, a Tripoline merchant, to enable him to return to France and continue his solicitation there, said Mahomet having embarked with considerable effects on board an English ship bound from Tripoli to Candia at the time when the French were at war with the Government of Tripoli, and having been made prize by a French man-of-war. "This being a breach of our Treaty with France Mr. Walpole got an order for their being restored him, but what was offered being, as he pretended, short of what he lost, he would not accept it, and came over hither near a twelvemonth ago to apply to the King for His Majesty's protection, and has had 50*l.* of His Majesty's bounty. His stomach is now come to him, and he is willing to take what he can get from the French, but is run in debt here, and has no money left to carry him over." Whitehall, March 31. 2 pages.

110. The Duke of Newcastle to the Lords of the Treasury, forwarding the report of the Council of Trade upon a petition of the merchants and traders of the city of London, praying that an Act of Parliament may be obtained for taking off certain restraints on the trade of Ireland to the British Plantations: together with copies of other papers annexed as below, "all which I now transmit to your Lordships by the King's command, that you may receive His Majesty's pleasure upon the prayer of the said petition." Whitehall, April 5. 1 page.

Appending:—(a.) Report of the Commissioners of Customs to the Lords of Treasury, dated 1731, March 31, on the memorial on behalf of the merchants and traders in Ireland relating to the restriction of trade between Ireland and His Majesty's Plantations in America for the unenumerated commodities. The principal commodities of the growth of the said Plantations not enumerated are rum, timber, pipe and hogshead staves, and other lumber. By the account of the Inspector General of Imports and Exports, it appears that only 407½ gallons of rum were exported from England to Ireland for the seven years ended 1729, Christmas, and at the same time only 11,952 cwts. 1 qr. 9 lbs. of hogshead and pipe staves, and 304 loads of timber similarly exported from England to Ireland, "which if they were of the growth of the Plantations paying no duty on the importation into England nothing remains on exportation, but if they were all of the growth of the Baltic or Germany, as were much the greatest part of them, the duty that would remain on exportation amounts to but 117*l.* 1*s.* 8*d.* which at a medium of seven years amounts to 16*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.* per annum." Are therefore of opinion that as the

Commissioners for Trade have represented that the permitting import direct into Ireland of unenumerated goods of the growth or product of the Plantations will be of advantage to the trade of Great Britain, it will have very little effect on the revenue. 1½ pages.

(b.) A memorial on behalf of the merchants and traders of Ireland to the Lords of the Treasury. Minuted:—With order of reference to the Commissioners of Customs. 1 page.

*Together with a copy of the report from the Commissioners of Trade to the King, dated Whitehall, 1730-1, March 18, on the letter of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland referred to them by the Duke of Newcastle's letter of February 24 last. By Acts of 15, 22, and 23 Charles II. the liberty of importing to Ireland from the Plantations, which had been allowed by the Act of 12 Charles II. cap. 18, for sugar, tobacco, cotton wool, indigo, ginger, fustic, or other dye woods, was taken from Ireland, and no goods were allowed to be imported there, but such only as were not enumerated as above. By the Act of 7 and 8 Wm. III. for preventing frauds all commerce was prohibited between Ireland and the English Plantations directly. Unenumerated goods could be sent by the Plantations to any part of Europe, and Irish merchants have therefore been obliged since then to send to foreign markets for unenumerated goods. The Irish merchants therefore desire liberty of importing directly unenumerated goods, to avoid the hardship to themselves and the loss to the Plantations. Have consulted the merchants trading to the Plantations, and they have no objections to the proposed change. Ireland imports from the Baltic 70,000*l.* worth of timber annually. This money might as well go to the Plantations. Are further of opinion that the importation of rum into Ireland from our own Plantations may by degrees diminish their trade in brandy to France, and so prevent the opportunities of running wool thither. "But notwithstanding we do apprehend it may be reasonable to indulge the petitioners in the importation of all commodities from our Plantations not already enumerated, yet considering the complaints that have been made against the merchants of Ireland for carrying on a pernicious trade with the Dutch and French sugar colonies, for which they allege in excuse the present prohibition of trade with our own it seems equally reasonable to restrain them under the severest penalties from bringing home from foreign Plantations any of those goods or commodities which are of the same nature with the produce of our own."* Whitehall, 1730-1, March 18. 3½ pages.

(c.) The memorial of the merchants and traders of the city of Dublin to the Lords Justices, &c. of Ireland in behalf of themselves and several other merchants and traders of the kingdom of Ireland. Have previously memorialised Lord Carteret on the subject of the above grievance, who recommended same to the Duke of Newcastle, as by copy of his letter below (f.). The same was referred to the Lords of the Treasury and by them to the Commissioners of Trade and Plantations. Therefore pray their Excellencies to lay before the present Lord Lieutenant their Appending:—(a.) Memorial of the Commissioners of Customs, Scotland, to the Lords of the Treasury, dated Custom House, Edinburgh, 1731, April 28. Is in possession of a piece of ground in the Privy Garden granted to Charles Churchill, Esq. by a lease of 1724-5, February 1, for 31 years at the rent of 8*l.*; and also of another piece of ground contiguous thereto which was granted to Lord Molesworth for 31 years from 1719, July 2, at the rent of 10*l.* Between these two parcels and the posts in the Privy Garden there is a piece of ground which is of no use to any person. Prays a grant of all three pieces of ground, on a surrender of the leases in being, for as long a time as the Crown can grant. Referred to the Surveyor-General for a state and value of the premises.

115. A schedule of papers relating to the sale of French lands in St. Christopher, presented to the House of Commons by the Lords of the Treasury pursuant to an order of 1730-1, March 16.

The schedule enumerates 12 papers, 1 to 10 being as below, a.-j. 11 and 12 wanting; 11 and 12 are thus described:—

(11.) A report of the trial between Osborne and O'Neal.

(12.) An account of what money has been paid into the Receipt of Exchequer on account of the sale of lands in St. Christopher.

[See Pipe Office declared accounts, 1566, 1567.]

Memorandum in dorso:—Presented by Mr. Clayton from the Commissioners of the Treasury. 1 page.

Appending:—(a.) Copy of a letter from Wm. Mathew, Gilbert Fleming, and Edward Mann, Commissioners to contract for the purchase of that part of the island of St. Christopher yielded by France to England by the Treaty of Utrecht, to the Lords of the Treasury, dated St. Christopher, 1728, November 23. The Earl of Londonderry arrived in his Government, August 17 last, at Antigua, which put a stop to the Commissioners' proceedings till his Lordship's arrival at St. Christopher, November 11, when they entered on their proceedings on a revived commission. Therefore enclose an account of sales, receipts, and remittances during the whole time of the old commission. The articles of "short payments" in Mr. Mathew's account, amounting to 10*l.* 2*s.* 9½*d.* were unavoidable. "We have no coin here lesse than one penny sterling, and silver for change is not to be had but by losing 4 shillings on the currency of each pistole." "On the articles both in Mr. Mathews' and Mr. Fleming's accounts of outstanding notes we pray leave to assure your Lordships that they are good, and we can receive them whenever bills offer for making remittances, by means of them the people were better supplied with money for their first payments, which, without such a circulation, the whole current cash of the island would not have been sufficient for; and had we forced the people to send for pistoles, besides delaying the business of our commission, the pistoles would have remained in our chests here, or we must have turned them into sterling at a very great losse." 5 pages.

(b.) Same from same to John Scrope, dated St. Christopher, 1728-9, January 28, concerning several of the purchases. 4 pages.

(c.) The memorial of John O'Neal, of the island of St. Christopher, to the Treasury, concerning his lands in Basse Terre quarter, and the answers thereto of the Commissioners for the sale of French lands; disposed in parallel columns Together with copies of (1) O'Neal's proposal for re-purchase of his land, dated 1726, August 30; (2) affidavits by Captain John Osborn, dated St. Christopher, 1727-8, January 24, and of Clement Martin, of same date, as to O'Neal's violence. 4 pages.

(d.) Same of Thomas Bridgwater, of St. Christopher, Esq. to same, concerning his lands in Basse Terre quarter, with the answer of the Commissioners thereto; arranged as above in parallel columns. 5 pages.

(e.) Same of Charles Lowndes, of St. Christopher, gentleman, to the Lords of the Treasury, concerning the sale of three parcels of his lands, with the Commissioners' answer thereto arranged as above. 4 pages. Together with—(e. 1.) Four pages of extracts from the Commissioners' Journal concerning Mr. Lowndes's case, certified by James Losack, Secretary to the Commissioners, 1729, April 2. (e. 2.) Affidavit of John Harries, of the island of Antigua, gentleman, formerly Secretary to the Commissioners, dated 1728, December 18, concerning Lowndes's case. 1 page. (e. 3.) Certificate by Hercules Ayleway, Surveyor General, concerning the lands in dispute between Gilbert Fleming and Lowndes. 1 page.

(f.) The Earl of Londonderry and the Commissioners for Sale, &c. to the Treasury, dated St. Christopher, 1728-9, February 18. Have almost brought the commission to a close, having disposed of all Frigate Bay and great part of the salt ponds. Represent for consideration the case of purchasers of small values in and about Basse Terre who are mostly unable to bear the expense of sending their contracts home to be confirmed. The public of the island have applied for a plot of land in Basse Terre to build a public court hall and other public offices thereon. Have reserved land in Basse Terre town for same; as also 11 acres near the same town, whereon the French had a fort, which the public have raised a tax to repair, and about 3 acres more for the use of a small battery called Smith's Fort. Propose that the patents for sales should pass under the Great Seal of the Leeward Islands. 3 pages.

(g.) Wm. Matthew and Gilbert Fleming, two of the Commissioners, to the Lords of the Treasury, dated St. Christopher, 1729, November 11. The Earl of Londonderry's indisposition, and his moving from St. Christopher to Nevis for recovery of his health, prevented the concluding the work of the commission. Since his death, and Mr. Mann being in Europe, have asked the opinion of the late Attorney General, there being none at present, as to the validity of two out of four members exercising the commission. He is of opinion the authority does not survive. Pray their Lordships commands hereon. 2 pages.

(h.) A list of such contracts made by the Commissioners for Sale of Lands in St. Christopher that formerly belonged to the French as have been confirmed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury. 3½ pages.

(i.) The petition of 11 subscribers, being planters in the island of St. Christopher and merchants trading to the said island on behalf of themselves and others, to the Queen, as "guardian of the kingdom and His Majesty's lieutenant." Petitioners, who have paid in their full purchase money for estates bought, desire to have their contracts completed by proper grants of fee simple. Pray therefore that such grants may pass under the Great Seal of the Leeward Islands. 2 pages, with signatures.

(j.) Petition of Captain Andrew Thauvet, of St. Christopher, to the Lords of the Treasury, representing his case. 1½ pages, partially destroyed. [Treasury Board Papers CCLXXV. No. 46.]

April 13.

119. Memorial of the Commissioners of Customs, Scotland, to the Lords of the Treasury. In a previous memorial of 1727, December 12, informed their Lordships that considerable parcels of coverlets or rugs, made of the coarsest refuse or of nubs or husks of silk, were exported from Port Glasgow and Greenock, for which the merchants claim a bounty of 3*s.* per lb. weight, by virtue of a clause of an Act 8 Geo. 1, cap. 15. On the officers' refusing by direction of the Commissioners to make out or pay any debentures upon account of such exportations, the merchants commenced suits against them in the Court of Exchequer. These still lie dormant, but they intend to bring the cause to a hearing next term, under pretence that the clause in the Act of 1 Geo. II. for repealing the present duties on wine leas, &c. extends only to the ascertaining the allowance on the exportation of manufactures or stuffs mixed with silk, and does not take in or regard manufactures of silk only, which they allege these coverlets are actually made of without any mixture. Advise a clause to be obtained in some Act to be passed this session, to put a stop to this fraud, which they design to carry to a great length before provision can be made against it in the next session of Parliament if they meet with the success they expect in their suit. The bounty claimed upon such a rug or coverlet as above mentioned, weighing 10 lb. at 3*s.* per lb., is 1*l.* 10*s.* 0*d.*, and the first cost thereof only comes to about 10*s.* The debentures claimed at the Port of Greenock alone amount to 1,150*l.* 2 pages.

121. Present:—Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Dodington, Sir Wm. Yonge.

“Col. Gordon having by petition represented that the invalids in Jersey have not been paid their subsistence further than February 24 last, for want of copper money, and desiring that the agent of the Company may be directed to answer such bills as shall be drawn by the proper officers there from time to time, till copper money shall be sent over thither, their Lordships say that neither the invalids nor the people of Jersey are to be distressed for want of the regular payment of the subsistence, and therefore order that copper money may be sent or bills taken as may with the best punctuality answer the service, in such manner nevertheless that where two month’s subsistence is ordered for the said invalids, one month’s subsistence be sent thither in copper money.”

The representation from the Board of Works, dated the 7th instant, for 2,300*l.* to make a thorough repair of the royal apartments in Somerset House, has been laid before the King and approved of by him.

“Mr. Paxton is called in and directed by their Lordships to pay a debt of about 20*l.* which is owing by John Bunce to Sir John Guise, so as the said Bunce now under arrest for the same may be set at liberty, and Count Kinski, the Emperor’s envoy, who claims and insists upon Bunce as a servant under his protection, may be satisfied and made easy therein, as also another debt of about 25*l.* of the said Bunce owing to one Tyler.”

If their Lordships think fit to grant a warrant for process against Mr. Bellamy, coroner, for the fines of the Court of King's Bench received by him from time to time, upon the Clerk of the Pipe's certificate of his not accompting, that will supply the defect of the Auditor's certificate, which cannot be had in this case; Bellamy being directed to enter his Privy Seal in the Remembrancer's Office in order for a record to ground process on. 1 page.

133. Sir Philip Yorke, Attorney General to John Scrope, enclosing a new draft [wanting] of the bill about the Penny Post. Has restrained it to letters originally sent by the Penny Post and not such as come by the General Post to London, and are from thence transmitted by the Penny Post, as he apprehends that only one penny on the whole is ever taken upon the latter, which the postmaster is clearly authorised to take by the express words of 9 Annæ, and therefore wants no new authority. "The Speaker desired to see it before it was presented, which you will please take care of. Pray consider whether the like double payment is not taken upon letters sent by the Penny Post from places out of the city and suburbs to London. That has never been mentioned by the Post Office, but if the fact is so, some care should be taken of it by this bill, for the present draft comprises only letters sent from London into the country." Lincoln's Inn, April 24. 1½ pages.

Appending.—Representation of Ed. Carteret and E. Harrison, Postmasters General, to the Lords of the Treasury, docquetted 2 April 1731. About 50 years since the Penny Post Office was projected and carried on, at first by a private person, and some few years after put under the direction of the Postmaster General. At first the conveyance by this post extended only through London, Westminster, and Southwark, and only 1*d.* was taken for each letter. But sometime after it had come under the management of the Postmaster General, "as we have it by tradition" upon the application of several places and towns round London and their offer to pay 1*d.* at the delivery of every letter directed to any person outside London, Westminster, and Southwark, over and above the penny paid upon putting every such letter into the Penny Post Office, the conveyance by this post was extended to many places distant even 17 or 18 miles from London. This additional penny has been ever since constantly paid. The Act 9 Queen Anne, cap. 10. s. 6. limiting the charge to 1*d.* must be judged as relating only to the letters brought to the General Post Office from the country to London. No one has refused to pay the second penny upon Penny Post letters until lately, when one Hodgson at Hampstead has done so, and the officer having refused to deliver the letters to him he has brought an action for 200*l.* against the officer. The Attorney General is of opinion that the additional penny cannot be taken without a clause to declare and explain the law, therefore propose a clause enclosed [missing] to pass into a law for that purpose. "And we think it our duty to represent this to your Lordships as a thing very necessary to be done, for as we are obliged to carry letters to all places that are within 10 miles distance from London, if the revenue be deprived of the additional penny, which now goes to the maintenance of about 20 country messengers, we shall be under the necessity of paying them wages in recompense of it, which will bring an additional charge of 650*l.* a year upon the office, in diminution of the greatest part of this branch of the revenue." Hope it will become law before next term, so as to frustrate Hodgson's action. 5 pages.

145. Memorial of John Conduitt to the Lords of the Treasury on their Lordships' objection to pay for the rebuilding the mill rooms at the Mint, on account of a clause in the Coinage Act of 18 Chas. II. Recites sections 9 and 10 of that Act, and also subsequent Acts, 4 Anne, c. 22, and 7 Anne, and 1 Geo. c. 43, to show that the clause, limiting the expenditure to 3,500*l.* has always been construed to relate only to repairing and not to rebuilding. In 1696 and 1697, 9,000*l.* was expended in building. Of the 3,500*l.* nearly 3,000*l.* is appropriated to salaries, and if there were no power to exceed that sum for building purposes many provisions of Parliament for the coinage would be rendered ineffectual by the ruinous and dangerous condition of

161. Report from the Commissioners of the Customs, Edinburgh, to the Lords of the Treasury, concerning the duties on silk used in manufactures at Glasgow. Have never heard of any silk manufactory of moment being carried on at Glasgow. About six months since there was a weaver who set up at Glasgow and made a few silk plaids, but he soon went off. The manufactured silks and stuffs of silk made of raw long silk, bounty on the exportation of which is not disputed, come mostly from London. The rugs or coverlets made of the coarsest refuse or nubs of silk are chiefly manufactured at Kendal and Norwich. The duty inwards of the former kind of silk, i.e. raw long silk, is 1s. 5½d. per lb. of 24 oz. The duty of silk nubs or husks of silk of which the last-named manufactory is made, comes to no more than 3½d. per lb. of 21 oz. "Yet your Lordships will observe that the bounty claimed upon both is equal, viz. 3s. per lb. weight, and that in the latter the bounty is about 14 times greater than the duty." The claims for the drawback or bounty on the debentures for the said rugs or coverlets are

"Mr. Conduitt attending, is called in, and Mr. Attorney General's report on the draft of the indenture for the Mint is read, and it being observed that the trial pieces for the gold coin is to be that which was made in the reign of James II. and that the trial pieces for the silver coin is to be that made since His present Majesty's accession, Mr. Conduitt to answer why both trial pieces in either of the reigns are not used, says that the gold trial piece of King James's reign is found to be more exact than that of King George, and that the silver trial piece lately made is more exact than that of King James, which proves to be 2 dwt. too coarse."

"Mr. Conduitt says that the great cash now in the Mint (in case there was any coinage going on) would be employed in paying immediately for the gold and silver imported, so as the importers might have the benefit of that money without waiting at all for the coinage, which is according to the practice of the Mint. He says the money is under three locks, as the Act of Parliament and indenture directs. Nevertheless, instead of 2,000*l.* security mentioned in the indenture, he will give 20,000*l.* whereof himself 10,000*l.* and two others 5,000*l.* each, which my Lords accept and agree that the charge which the enlargement of his security may occasion shall be defrayed out of the coinage duty."

176. Present :—Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir George Oxenden, Mr. Dodington, Mr. Clayton, Sir Wm. Yonge.

The Commissioners for Taxes attend, and their certificates containing the names of all the Receivers for the Land Tax, 1730, with their charge, discharge, and remains are read. Their Lordships proceeded thereupon to the appointing receivers for the present year's land tax, marking those to be continued by the letter C. and those to be respited by the letter R.

John Airy, receiver of Durham and Northumberland, declining the office, Wm. Surtees accepted in his stead, if approved by Commissioners of Taxes.

Their Lordships desire the said Commissioners in making their future certificates to comprise in one sheet not only the charge, discharge, and remains of the last preceeding tax, but also the remains on each receiver on all preceeding taxes, house money included, so as their Lordships may see at one view the debt with which each receiver stands chargeable. Their Lordships also expect that when any former receiver stands respited, they do by the surveyors of the houses or other fit means give notice thereof in the country, to prevent such respited receivers intermeddling in the growing receipt; as also for former receivers continued, until their securities are taken in the Exchequer and their commissions delivered out.

Their Lordships observe that 59,083*l.* stands in arrear of the last year's land tax for London. The Commissioners thereof are to lay before their Lordships the particular parishes or places chargeable therewith, so as some special orders may be given thereupon.

The Commissioners' report of the 15th instant on Mr. Sparry's petition for an allowance in his account of house money for extraordinary charges as late receiver for Worcestershire read and agreed to.

Their Lordships reconsider the case of Mr. Smart's securities on the Commissioners' report of the 15th instant, and are of opinion that the Commissioners for Taxes should appoint the moneys recovered to be paid in rateably and proportionately to Smart's debts for the said respective taxes.

Dr. Sayer, the Surveyor General, attended, and the report of the Commissioners of Customs on Fazakerly and Skinner's case of a seizure of gold bullion at Dover imported from India [sic] read, with the Attorney General's opinion. Their Lordships put off the trial in the Exchequer from Tuesday next till next term in order to a thorough consideration of the case on the said report and opinion.

Order for the issue to the Paymaster of the Forces of 100,713*l.* 14*s.* 4*d.* out of the funds in the Exchequer for 1731, for services in general. Said Paymaster to apply the like sum out of any moneys in his hands to clearings, offreckonings, and other services of the year 1730, according to his memorial of this day's date.

In the latter case care is to be taken that no more buildings are erected on the said ground than what are at present standing there. Also that his Majesty has agreed to the estimate, plan and elevation for a new building in the mews at Charing Cross represented in a memorial of the Board of Works of April 9 last; as also to a memorial from the Board of Works of April 7 last for repairing certain paintings in the great stair case and gallery of communication between the King and Queen's apartments at Windsor, estimated at 450*l.*

valuable metals, the working whereof may be of great advantage. Referred to the Barons of the Exchequer, Scotland.

[Ibid.]

Two letters from Mr. Worseley, the Governor of Barbados, dated 1730-1, January 17, and 1731, March 27, relating to arrears due to His Majesty on the 2*s.* 6*d.* levy in Barbados for 1729 and 1730, and proposing expedients for gathering in same, read and transmitted to the Commissioners for Trade and Plantations for report.

Their Lordships transmit said representation to the Attorney General. Dr. Sayer to attend him to consider subject matter of same, and also the condition of the Savoy Hospital itself and all other the estates belonging thereto; so as their Lordships may have a state of the whole affair reported to them to be laid before the King.

181. Report to the Treasury from the Commissioners of Stamp Duties on the representation of Edmund Curll. Apprehend that there is no law in being for ascertaining the size of paper on which newspapers are to be printed nor to limit the number of lines which are to be made use of in advertisements. Conceive that if same were ascertained and limited by Act of Parliament, it would tend to the advancement of Her Majesty's revenue. "As to musick ballads we apprehend they are liable to the payment of the duties, and therefore as often as we receive information of their being printed and published contrary to law, we cause the offenders to be prosecuted and have ordered our inspectors to attend Mr. Curll to take his direction how to discover the offenders for the future." Have a Register of Pamphlets and Advertisements who is well qualified for the services aforesaid, and do not think it necessary to put the Government to the expense of an inspector of newspapers and advertisements. Stamp Office, Lincoln's Inn, June 1. 1 page.

Appending:—Representation of Edmund Curll to Sir Robert Walpole and the other Lords of the Treasury, proposing the appointing of an inspector for effect as above; which would advance the revenue above 10,000*l.* per annum. Minuted with order of reference, dated 1730-1, March 16. 1½ pages.

183. Present:—Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir George Oxenden, Mr. Clayton.

The representation of the Salt Commissioners, dated 1731, May 28, read, concerning the miserable circumstances of the dismissed officers, and desiring authorisation to make them some small allowance for their present subsistence till provided for. Their Lordships conceive they have not such power over the moneys coming in for arrears of the late salt duties as to apply same to paying the allowances desired; but order the Acts of Parliament to be inspected.

Order for the issue to the Paymaster of Exchequer Bills of 350,000*l.* out of the supplies now in the Exchequer for 1731, towards cancelling the Exchequer Bills which till Christmas last

The Barons of the Exchequer, Scotland, are to give their Lordships an account of moneys standing out on the said head of forfeitures, and from whom to be recovered, and the claims or demand, if any, chargeable thereon.

Auditor Jett's report on the petition of Mr. Burton, late Receiver of the Savoy Hospital rents, to be allowed the charges of passing his accounts, read and agreed to.

184. Report from the Commissioners of Customs, London, to the Lords of the Treasury on the petition of Joseph Bentley, one of the land surveyors in Liverpool port, praying allowance for French wine and brandy, seized from him by the rebels in the late rebellion, when he was collector of Customs at Lancaster, petitioner having managed to secure above 400*l.* of the Kings' money in his hand and also to save all the bonds from the rebels' "though they got all the rest of the money as Excise, leather and Post Office." Minuted:—With minute as under June 15, infra. 2½ pages.

Appending:—Bentley's petition to effect as above to the Lords of the Treasury with order of reference thereupon, dated 1731, May 6. 1½ page. [Treasury Board Papers CCLXXVI. No. 15.]

185. Same in duplicate from the Commissioners for Hawkers and Pedlars to the Treasury on certain "proposals for increasing the revenue on hawkers and pedlars, and thereby obliging all shopkeepers in cities, corporations, and market towns." The traders in markets who attend and keep stall or stand there on market days do not, as is alleged, evade the taking of licences, as by 9 & 10 Wm. III. licence for them is not required. An Act of Parliament would therefore be necessary for requiring such licences. The office of Surveyor General was reduced in 1715, and in lieu thereof two new surveyors added. The proposed re-establishment of such Surveyor General to survey the other surveyors would be useless, because such officer could not survey the whole of England and Wales in such a way as to be a check upon the other surveyors, who are only nine in number, and the present method of keeping the surveyors to their duty answers the purposes for which such Surveyor General might be useful in a much better manner than it can ever be by a General Surveyor, "for our surveyors, every month, send to the board a journal, upon oath, containing an account of what towns they survey, what number of miles they ride each day, what quantity of time employed therein, what persons they find trading with or without licences, and if without, what steps are taken in the prosecution of them, and what the effect of such prosecutions are." Hawkers' and Pedlars' Office, June 3. 6 pages.

Appending:—The "proposals" referred to, partly in duplicate.

Minuted:—With order of reference, dated 1731, May 25.

Evelyn [to the Treasury], representing the extraordinary insult received by Mr. Joseph Southgate, mate of the "Walpole" sloop, employed in the revenue at Wells, Norfolk, from the commander of two French shallops within the limits of said port. 1 page.

Appending:—Affidavit as to the affair by Southgate. Having accosted two shallops suspected of supplying brandy to a large fleet of colliers near Burnham Flats, Cheyne, the commander of one of the shallops fired on him, and with Peters, commander of the other shallop, chased the sloop to near shore in Holkham Bay, boarded it and forced deponent to go on board Peters' shallop, being under the impression deponent was Captain Harold, of the Custom House sloop at Yarmouth, whom they were resolved to murder. 4 pages.

[Ibid, No. 19.]

187. Report to the Treasury from George Wright, deputy auditor, on the petition of several of His Majesty's tenants in the manors of Barton, Barrow, and Goxhill, in the county of Lincoln. Has made strict inquiry into the customs of those manors, and finds that yearly proclamation has always been made for the payment of the several rents therefrom and that these rents have always been a distinct and separate collection from the rest of the county. The charges of acquittance money have been usually, for each acquittance, 8*d.* for copyholders and leaseholders, and 4*d.* for freeholders. Acquittance money in the various counties differ according to custom, and range from 4*d.* to 60*d.* 1½ pages.

Appending:—Petition of 34 of His Majesty's tenants of the above manors complaining of the charge for acquittances, ut supra, p. 19. Minuted:—With order of reference to Sidney Godolphin, one of the auditors of land revenues. 1½ sheets with signatures.

James Pitt, appointed viewer and examiner of tobacco inwards and outwards, London port, loco Thomas Evans, deceased.

The Surveyor General's report on George Wynn's petition for a lease of certain mines in Derbyshire, with a warrant thereupon for rating a particular in order to the said lease, is signed by two of their Lordships. Nevertheless, care is to be taken that the same be not delivered out without their Lordships' particular order in that behalf.

When the particular annual bounties formerly paid out of the 2,400*l.* or thereabouts issued in the name of Richards, come again to be paid, care is to be taken that Mlle. de Lisle, aged about 85 years, be inserted for the pension her daughter had on Mr. Blagny's list before she died.

Mr. Pelham's memorial of the 3rd instant, inclosing Sir Joseph Eyles's proposal for remitting the subsistence to Minorca and Gibraltar, from 1731, June 25, to August 24, agreed to as follows, the rate of exchange being certified to be as usual.

211. The Earl of Dorset, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Treasury, transmitting a letter [wanting] from the Lords Justices of Ireland, of the 7th instant, enclosing a report of Deputy Vice Treasurer Gardiner concerning the pay of the three Irish regiments serving abroad. 1½ page.

Appending:—Report, dated 1731, June 23, to the Lords Justices General and General Governors of Ireland, from Luke Gardiner, Deputy Receiver General, in reply to Pelham's memorial concerning the pay of the Irish regiments of Cols. Newton (now Cope), Hayes, and Middleton, as signified by Secretary Tickell's letter of the 21st instant. By His Majesty's letter of 1729–30, January 23, was directed to pay Lord Wilmington 27,238*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.* and by a second letter of 1730, September 16, a further 13,581*l.* 15*s.* making in all the full Irish pay of the regiments, 1728, December 25, to 1730, June 24. Of this sum has paid 27,238*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.* To have paid the rest would mean an entire stop to the current and necessary payments. By the nature of His Majesty's letter of 1730, September 16, directing the subsistence of the regiments from 1730, June 25, to be set apart at the same time as that of the other regiments in Ireland, conceives that it is believed that "the receipt of His Majesty's revenue by the several collectors in this kingdom is by them brought up and paid into His Majesty's Exchequer here, as I am informed the method is in Great Britain. But the practice here is to let the money lie in the several collectors' hands, on whom Exchequer acquittances are drawn every month to answer the pay of the army in the several quarters in this kingdom, and if there should appear to be a redundancy in any of the collectors' hands it is then sent for by the Vice Treasurers at their own proper cost and risque. Messrs. Henry and Burton, by whom this money was ordered to be remitted, were very sensible that receiving Exchequer acquittances every month in the manner the rest of the army was subsisted would be of no service, and refused to accept them, and chose to wait until there was a redundancy in some of the collectors' hands worth sending for." Encloses a statement of the receipts and payments of His Majesty's Treasury in Ireland, 1729, March 25, to 1731, March 25, showing that the payments during that time for regiments serving abroad, but continuing on the Irish establishment, was 95,709*l.* 8*s.* 8*d.* "which is the eleventh part of the whole revenue of this kingdom for the said time. The arrears due to the several branches of the establishment at Lady Day last have been since increased and not lessened." 3 pages.

"This office more than a canker hath gone much beyond devouring the body it should live upon and ought certainly to be reformed. Mr. Byng seems sensible hereof, because the above arrear being paid he says in his memorial that he is unwilling to create any further charge and desirous to resign the employment. If a Lord High Admiral was in being, these perquisites would be his in right of his office, and the Commissioners for executing that office would also have claimed the same but that they are reserved to the Crown during the vacancy of the office of High Admiral by an express clause in their commission.

The royalties are great though the income thereby to the Crown is but small and the office of receiver should not be suppressed. December 10. 275. Copy of the report of the Board of Trade, Whitehall, to the King on the memorial from the Governor and Council of New York, together with one addressed to the said Governor and Council by Richard Bradley, His Majesty's Attorney General in that province, concerning his salary in that post. Wm. III. in 1699 ordered a salary of 200*l.* per annum to the Attorney General of New York. Under Queen Anne, this was cut down to 150*l.* and this was paid to Bradley till 1724, out of quit rents in that province. As it is his duty to see the laws of trade and navigation put in execution, as well as to defend or prosecute all suits of the Crown, strongly recommend that his salary be secured out of the Civil List or quit rents. As to the assertion of persons in authority in New York that the quit rents in that province are already charged to the full, have reason to believe that there have formerly been very fraudulent and collusive practices in granting lands in the said province, or that some former governors have been extremely remiss and negligent, not only in granting exorbitant tracts of land without reserving proper quit rents or making any reasonable provision or condition for the cultivation thereof, but likewise in suffering many persons to possess much larger tracts of land than were in reality granted to them. Think that the quit rents throughout America, and more particularly in New York, stand in need of an inspection, and might be very considerably increased if examined by some proper person. "The Legislature of New York are so well apprized of this truth that they have more than once attempted by certain acts transmitted home to surprise the 1731.

Crown into a confirmation of these extraordinary and illegal possessions for which they at present pay no manner of quit rent." 6 pages. [Treasury Board Papers CCLXXVII. No. 35.]

- December 11. 276. Report to the Treasury from the Commissioners of Customs, concerning the case between the East India Company and the officers of the Customs in relation to the contested part of the duties for unrated East India goods, concerning which a decretal order was made by the Exchequer Court, 1714-5, February 28. Defendants were ordered to account with His Majesty for the difference of the duties on their own unrated goods imported by them since 1703, March 8. The Customs officers prepared accounts of those duties according to the old method of computation, and according to the new method prescribed by the decree. The difference due to the Crown was 26,222*l.* 1*s.* 8½*d.* After many summons to attend the Deputy Remembrancer, defendants objected to the charge and said it was impracticable for them to bring in a proper discharge to it because the duties of the several sorts of goods were compiled together and not the duties of each sort separately. On the 18th December last, the Deputy Remembrancer directed the officers of the Customs and those of the Company to meet to explain the charge and expedite the account. Defendants then brought forward a claim of 6,846*l.* 4*s.* 4*d.* on account of private trade in their ships and they have further demands to make. Besides the above, there remains due on account of unrated goods, 2,057*l.* 14*s.* 5*d.* from the old East India Company, from 1703-4, March 8, to 1708, March 29, the date of the last importation by them, 4,301*l.* 3*s.* 0½*d.* from the New East India Company, from same date to 1713, March 13, after which time said company did not import any goods and 8,123*l.* 7*s.* 8*d.* from several separate traders who had licence to trade to the East. These will be dealt with after the result of the final decree depending against the United East India Company.

Their Lordships will consider same when the causes now depending in Chancery relating to this affair are determined, or when the executors of Stevenson shall have put in their answer.

The report of the Commissioners of Customs of the 11th instant read, concerning the debt due to the Crown from the East India Company for duties on unrated goods. Their Lordships are of opinion the accounts depending may be sooner liquidated and agreed upon by two Commissioners of the Customs and two directors of the company meeting, than by continuing still under a tedious prosecution at law. The Commissioners of Customs to be written to to put this affair into such way of being determined and to report thereon.

Order for the preparation of a warrant for the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland to discharge their cashier in his account of the sum of 125*l.* 4*s.* 11*d.* for which the said cashier has Mr. Cockburn's receipt, being had of him by said Cockburn to defray the passing of a commission in 1717, appointing Cockburn a Commissioner of Excise.

January 12. 5. Report from the Customs Commissioners, London, to the Treasury, on the petition of the inhabitants of the Isle of Thanet and Margate, praying the establishment of a Customs officer at Margate. In January 1727-8, ordered an inquiry into the conduct of the collector of Sandwich in granting sufferances for landing wines and other fineable goods at Margate, a creek belonging to Sandwich. Abuses were discovered, and the collector was ordered to permit no foreign goods, except timber, deal boards, hemp, and other "gruff" goods, to be landed, except at the lawful quays. There is no restraint on the shipping of fish, if English taken. As to the coast trade, the abuses of the "let pass" or "transires" necessitated the order of 1728, December 24, obliging all coasters loading foreign goods to take out a coast cocquet and give bond. It will not be safe to comply with the petition without appointing a new set of lawful officers, with a custom house and lawful quay, distinct from Sandwich. This would be a great expense. 7 pages.

Appending.—(a.) Petition referred to, with Treasury order of reference, dated 1730-1, March 20. 1 sheet with signatures.

It is the custom of the Comptroller of the Foreign Post Office to tax at 1 per cent. packets of letters which he guessed had lace or diamonds in them. The amount has not been much, diamonds which have been sent abroad for sale having come back unsold eight or ten times. The new discovery of the Brazil mines has altered the case, but if they had suspected the despatch of diamonds in large quantities would not have left it to a Custom House officer to break open the King's mail, which has never been done before, "nor is it opened when received at this office but by the superior officer in waiting and in the presence of two of his clerks." 76. Memorial of John Conduitt to the Treasury, concerning the indenture of the Mint about to pass. It will be proper to lodge with the persons concerned such parts of the indented trial pieces therein mentioned as have not yet been delivered. The gold trial piece therein mentioned is that of 4 James II. which is nearer standard than any that have been made and has been constantly used. The silver trial piece is that of 1 Geo. II. and is very exact. Before the Union the indented trial pieces were cut into six parts which were lodged with (1) the Treasury, under the custody of the Auditors and Chamberlains of the Exchequer; (2) The Warden of the Mint; (3) Master and Worker of same; (4) Wardens of the Goldsmiths in London; (5) The Exchequer in Scotland; (6) The Warden of the Mint in Scotland, "who is styled "General." Since the Union there has been a seventh part cut for the Master and Worker of the Mint in Scotland. Suggests alterations in the wording of the indenture to meet this. "But as there has been no coinage in Scotland since the Union, and there is no probability of any, the three parts intended for Scotland may be delivered to the Auditor and Chamberlains of the Exchequer in England, and kept there till there shall be occasion for same. As to the gold trial piece made in 1 Geo. II. which proves to be erroneous . . . it has been usual to distribute the trial pieces to the several parties concerned as soon as they have been brought in by the jury of goldsmiths, and none though afterwards found to be erroneous have been recalled, but as your Lordships have had notice of the erroneousness of the said gold trial piece before all the parts of it have been distributed, it may be proper to deliver the remaining parts of the said piece to the Auditor and Chamberlains of the Exchequer, where the erroneous gold trial piece made in 1707 and all the other erroneous trial pieces have been lodged as the proper custody." 3 pages.

96. Wm. Gooch [to same] recommending John Randolph, appointed by the General Assembly of Virginia to solicit their Lordships and Parliament for relief from the villainous running of tobacco. Besides a letter to their Lordships, Randolph brings an address to the King and one to the House of Commons. The Act of Assembly passed in 1730 for amending the staple of tobacco and preventing frauds on the Customs is, by an additional Act of May last, rendered as easy to the trade as the merchants themselves can wish. Encloses a report (a) on Colonel Spotswood's account of his disbursements in the treaty with the five nations of Indians in 1722. Concerning His Majesty's instructions for an exact map of the colony, has appointed a fit person, Mr. Robinson, to be director of the work at a salary of 150*l.* per annum, proposing to have the survey done by the surveyors of the several counties. He reported that an exact survey of the inhabited part of the colony, taking in the mountains and the River Shenandoah, on the west side of them, and a hydrographical chart of the soundings on the coast, Chesapeake Bay, and several rivers will amount to 5,000*l.* Have, therefore, stopped proceedings, awaiting His Majesty's pleasure, though the survey is much wanted, and would be of great use towards settling the boundaries of the northern neck betwixt the King and Lord Fairfax. The business of the Attorney-General is greatly increased since the importation of those numbers of transported convicts brought yearly. The Council recommends Mr. Clayton, present Attorney General, for an increase of salary on the additional 60*l.* per annum granted out of quit rents 1 Anne. Williamsburg, Virginia, July 16. In duplicate. 3½ and 3½ pages.

- February 20. 19. Memorial from J. Conduitt to the Treasury, proposing a draft of a royal warrant, such being necessary before the Broad Pieces can be received into the Mint pursuant to the address of the House of Commons.

Together with said draft authorising the Mint to take by weight from all persons and bodies politic and corporate, gold coins of 25s. and 23s. commonly called Broad Pieces, or any halves or quarters at the rate of 4*l.* 1*s.* per oz. during the space of one year, and to coin same into the current gold coins of the kingdom. 3 pages. - February 23. 20. The Commissioners of Excise, London, to the Treasury. Have given directions for the preparation of the gross and net value of Seizures, 1716-32, Midsummer, and have completed an account of the Seizures made by the officers of Excise, London port, of all exciseable liquors imported from 1726-7, February 3, the time of the first sale at the Excise Office, to Midsummer 1732. The Seizures made before that time upon those commodities were by virtue of a power from the Commissioners of Customs, and returned into the Exchequer by them, together with other Seizures made by their own officers. "We cannot give so distinct and separate an account of the Seizures made in the country as has been required of us, the value of the Seizures being blended together with the fines given at the time of the condemnation of such Seizures, such fines and Seizures being appropriated in the same manner, and that the county collectors' Fine Books from Midsummer 1716 to Midsummer 1722 (from whence only the particular account of Seizures in the country ordered for those years can be made), are not remaining in the office, our general accounts for those years having long since been made up and delivered to the Auditor and passed by him, and we did not apprehend the said Fine Books could ever be of any use, and therefore they were disposed of as old stores." 1 page.

[Ibid, No. 38.]

- February 27. 21. The Commissioners of Customs, Scotland, to the Treasury. The revenue is frequently injured in the matter of debentures certified from Stornoway, Lewis, for fish exported. The comptroller lately appointed was instructed to take special care that no debentures were issued for greater sums than the merchant was justly entitled to. He accordingly refused to certify a debenture for a parcel of fish said to be exported, because neither he nor any of the officers had seen the same shipped. The people of the island made him so uneasy and intimidated him so far as forced him to leave the place after a short stay there. Stornoway or the Isle of Lewis is not entitled to the privileges of a port member or creek having never been set out as such by commission from the Exchequer Court. The stationing of officers in that part of the country has only been for the convenience of fish exporters in the fishing season. This end would be better answered by the officers residing at Bernera in Glenelg, opposite the Isle of Skye, and adjacent to the several lakes and creeks where the greatest resort is for fishing, and where a constant garrison is kept, which may be a help to the officers. Desire authorisation for said change of residence. 2 pages.

The Commissioners of Customs, London, to the Treasury, forwarding five accounts (Nos. 1, 4, and 5 missing) of frauds relating to the import and export of tobacco since Christmas 1723, with the proceedings thereupon. "In the year 1728 we discovered very considerable frauds in this branch of the revenue which had for some time been carried on by the connivance of tidesmen, watchmen, and weighers of this port, in combination with the masters, mates, and mariners belonging to the ships, together with the lightermen, watermen, and porters employed by the merchants in the tobacco trade. . . . In the progress of this inquiry we found reason to dismiss 150 tidesmen and other inferior officers, and to prosecute several other persons concerned in the frauds, not only for the penalties in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer, but some of them for being criminally concerned in stealing large quantities of tobacco out of the merchants' hogsheads. Six of these offenders were transported . . . and about 20 tons of tobacco seized." Report from the Commissioners of Revenue, Ireland, to the Treasury, on the petition of Francis Alen, of St. Wolstans, Kildare, praying removal of an extent upon his estate for a debt due from him to the Crown as late collector of the revenue in the said county, and that he may be permitted to pay same by instalments of 100*l.* per annum. Petitioner was educated a Papist, and in 1708 abjured the errors of the Romish Church and conformed to the Church of Ireland, and has since continued a good Protestant and well affected to our present happy constitution in Church and State. Petitioner served as knight of the shire for Kildare, 1724-7, and contested it again at the accession of Geo. I. The Commissioners of Revenue, suspecting he had made use of the King's money for election expenses, suspended his receiving any more public money till his accounts were settled, on the performance whereof he was reinstated. In June 1729, he being indebted to the Crown 764*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.* was dismissed. Only 400*l.* per annum, part of his estate, was extended. Are of opinion that discharging the extent will be a prejudice to the Crown and the continuing it no great detriment to the petitioner, the debt being likely to be discharged in about a year. 3 pages.

[a Commissioner of Customs], desiring his good offices on behalf of Mrs. Coleman, widow of His Majesty's late Resident at Florence, who finds some difficulty at the Customs House in obtaining the delivery of 12 cases of books, three cases of pictures, one case with 12 Caesar's heads in marble, and one with two small bustos. "For though perhaps several of the books may be in languages in which women are not very conversant yet as well they as the other things having been part of her late husband's family furniture, she is surely entitled to any favour which would have been shown him had he lived to have returned."

- December 15. 151. Wm. Cosby, Governor of New York, to the Lords of Trade and Plantations. Transmits accounts as in (a) below. On the application of Mr. Clarke, the deputy auditor, is using all authority to oblige the sheriffs to collect the quit rents in their respective counties, and to give security to pay what they should collect to the receiver. But there are several long arrears standing out with suits depending in Chancery, "which by reason of the Governor's residence in Jersey for some part of the year, and his being at other times obliged to meet the six nations of Indians at Albany, have proceeded very slowly, and judging that the Court of Exchequer would be more effectual for the purpose, I recommended it to the Judges of the Supreme Court, who have all along had a power by their commission to hold a Court of Exchequer, to open it; and by the advice of the Council I passed an ordinance for sittings in the vacations for the greater despatch of business, wherein the Attorney General will for the future commence his suits for quit rents." This has created enemies; the late Chief Justice Morris, though formerly advocating such a method, having now changed his opinion, "and proceeded with that heat and bitterness as showed him rather an advocate for sedition than a Chief Justice of a province." 1½ pages.

Appending:—(a.) The general account of His Majesty's quit rents for the province of New York, 1730, September 29, to 1732, September 29, stated by Archibald Kennedy, Collector and Receiver General thereof. 4 pages.

[Before
December 17.] 153. Petition to the Treasury from Mary, wife of David Dunbar, Lieutenant Governor of New Hampshire, and Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods in America, for her husband's travelling charges as in the narrative annexed. Together with report to the Treasury from the Commissioners of the Navy thereupon, dated Navy Office, 1733, December 17, and minuted with minute as under date 1734, January 2, infra. 3 pages.

Appending:—(a.) An account of the several services and proceedings of David Dunbar since his arrival in America as Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, and Surveyor General of the lands of Nova Scotia. Landed at Boston, 1729, September 22; marked off a large tract of land in Nova Scotia for the use of the Royal Navy, and in a progress of about 36 days viewed Casco and Piscataway. Then visited the woods in New Hampshire and Maine, seizing several parcels of masts and logs, returning in six weeks to Boston to prosecute offenders, but met with much discouragement therein from Mr. Byfield, lately deceased, then Judge of Vice-Admiralty. In August or September 1730, proposed to Governor Belcher to have an Act in the Massachusetts Province to remedy the defects in the Act of Parliament for the preservation of woods, viz. by a registration of sawmills. It would have passed the House of Representatives, "but that Dr. Cook, a leading man in the House, with passion and resentment, objected to it, saying, I would afterwards ask them to register their wives and children, and so it was thrown out." Some short time after had a difference with Governor Belcher about the King's right to lands to the eastward of Kennebec river, and thereupon despatched his brother to London and obtained thereon an order from His Majesty in Council, which Governor Belcher refused to receive or publish. In June 1731, embarked for New Hampshire on receiving His Majesty's commission to be Lieutenant Governor there, but was recalled to Frederick Fort, the people there being afraid of the Indians, who complained of his absence, and were discouraged and running into confusion for want of one to regulate and direct them. From September 1731 to June 1733, continued at Frederick Fort, and there received an order from His Majesty in Council, dated August 1732, to quit possession of the above said lands to the Massachusetts Government. Expresses doubts as to how far private property previously laid out was to be held not to come within the Act for the preservation of the woods. Prays allowance for all his above said services.

Together with the attestation of two justices of the peace, dated Portsmouth, New Hampshire, 1733, July 12, of Dunbar's affidavit as to the above narrative of his travelling, &c. 4 pages.

160. Petition to the Treasury from the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Company of Silk Throwers, on behalf of themselves and the commonalty of the said company. Of late years several persons have and daily do import very great quantities of foreign thrown silks and trams coarser than third Bolognia and second Orsoy, and said imports are made use of instead of trams made in Legee and other raw silk. This has led to a sensible diminution of petitioners' trade. Pray that an Act of Parliament may be obtained to prevent the importation of the above-mentioned sorts of foreign thrown silks, as by the Acts of 2 Wm. and Mary 1, cap. 9, and 1 Anne 1, cap. 27, from Italy, Milan, Naples and Sicily. 2 pages.

165. Memorial to the Treasury from the Commissioners of the Land Tax acting in the Duchy Liberty in the Strand, and the rest of the freeholders and inhabitants of the said liberty. Said small liberty lying in parts of the parishes of St. Clement Danes and St. Mary le Strand, was charged by 4 Wm. and Mary 6,476*l.* 10*s.* 6½*d.* towards the land tax, and so in proportion for every aid since granted by Parliament, and not only have the lands and tenements been assessed at the rack rents, but the inhabitants of the said liberty rated from time to time for their personal estates and stock in trade. A great part of the Savoy has for several years been turned into barracks, and other houses in the Savoy ward which have fallen into the Crown are in possession of poor persons by virtue of Treasury warrants. By the death of Catherine, Queen Dowager, Somerset House is now in possession of the Crown, and the liberty has been deprived of taxes for same. By reason of these losses the liberty has been unable to pay its quota of land taxes without very heavy and numerous reassessments, which from 1708 to 1732, both inclusive, amount to 10,649*l.* 2*s.* 1*d.* Pray that the Treasury may contribute annually for Somerset House and the Savoy to prevent these reassessments and make good deficiencies. Together with schedule of such reassessments. 3 pages. [1733 ?]

169. Abstract of the report of the Commissioners and Trustees for Fisheries and Manufactures in Scotland for the year ended Christmas, 1733. Have expended 2,010*l.* part of the surplus of the malt duty in establishing a warehouse for the sale of cambrics, encouraging bleaching fields and whitening low priced cloth with kelp, &c. Detail the issue of a part of a further sum of 532*l.* 16*s.* 10*d.* for the further encouragement of the cambric manufacture. The success of the herring fishery has been as last year, four busses have been employed, whereof three from England; the coast fishing has produced nothing on the East coast, on the West 18,329 barrels were caught and cured. Propose to increase the bounty on the busses from 40*s.* to 60*s.* per last, and to offer further 150*l.* to four small fishing vessels from 12 to 20 tons to cruise in the chops of the Firths of Forth and Moray for discovering the herring shoals when they first enter. The linen manufacture continues to improve, 4,720,105½ yards having been stamped for sale, an excess over last year of 335,272½ yards. The quantity of linen made would be much greater were it not for the export of linen yarn, "which may in time merit restraint by Act of Parliament, though at present it may be tolerated because the great demand for yarn encourages spinning." The foreign cambric workers are much relieved by the warehouse established for the sale of their cloth; 20 Scotch apprentices are settled with them at the expense of 10*l.* each, and more are to be settled at the first convenience. As the general plan of improvements expires at Christmas, propose a new plan, detailed, for three years more, together with a proposition as to the application of the surplus on the malt duty. 3 pages. [Ibid., No. 57.]

Weeks and four other persons in the offices of the Great Wardrobe, Works, and Master of the Horse, on the said creditors executing surrenders in due form of their respective debts. 2 pages. - February 6. 22. Report from John Conduitt to the Treasury, dated from the Mint Office, on the memorial of John Croker, chief engraver of the Mint. Former engravers had larger salaries than Croker, who has served as engraver since 1696. They had also an allowance for a filer to sink, file, and polish the dies. Recommends same for Croker. Further represents that "for the greater security of the public, there is a clerk of the irons and surveyor of the meltings appointed to watch the melter constantly the whole time that any bullion is melting, and to attend the graver when any dies are sinking, and to have a lock upon his press; but there is no particular check upon the moneyers' presses, though they are in daily use, and upon many accounts require the same constant inspection." Proposes the constitution of a surveyor of the presses of the moneyers to inspect their presses during the coinage and to have a lock upon them, and to clean and polish the dies, &c. at a salary of 40*l*. Recommends Wm. Vaughan for said post. 2 pages.

In pursuance of same, certain proprietors subscribed to the amount of 111,000*l.* and have carried on banking to the profit of Scotland, as in accepting large sums arising from the Trustees for improving Fisheries in Scotland and duly paying interest therefor. By the said letters patent His late Majesty covenanted to grant other such privileges to said corporation as should be necessary to make their grant more effectual, upon the advice of the Lord Advocate or Solicitor General of Scotland. The annuity to the Equivalent Company, and in consequence the share subscribed into the Royal Bank, being subject to redemption, a doubt may arise as to the cession of said Royal Bank of Scotland upon such redemption. The number of the directors and the high qualification also proves detrimental to it. Therefore pray letters patent under the Great Seal of Scotland to ratify and confirm their privileges, remove all such doubt as above, and to ordain the election annually of twelve ordinary and six extraordinary directors, with qualifications of 600*l.* and 400*l.* stock respectively, and for a quorum for stating and auditing the accounts of the bank to be at least four ordinary and two extraordinary directors, or as may be determined by the byelaws, and for power of disposing of said stock by testament or special assignation, and finally for directions for the investing moneys that may be paid in case of redemption in other public funds or otherwise as His Majesty by advice of counsel learned in the law may think fit.

Referred to the Lord Advocate and Solicitor General of Scotland for report. [North Britain Book XI. pp. 94-5.]

Report to the King from the Treasury concerning the method necessary to carry out certain proposals laid before the King from the Lords of the Committee of Council for purchasing the right of certain proprietors, and of certain lessees under them, in the Bahamas. 71. Same to the Treasury from the Customs Commissioners, London, on the petition of Jonathan, son and executor of Edward Perrie, late Surveyor General, and of Charles Dunbar, present Surveyor General of Customs in the Barbados, Leeward Isles and the Bermudas. Perrie was appointed by warrant 1709, November 25, and during the war had frequent opportunity of visiting the islands under his survey without expense under an Admiralty order for the men-of-war on that station to carry him as the service required. On the conclusion of peace he was obliged to hire sloops for that service, receiving the expense from the collector of Barbados, who charged same in his accounts. Dunbar succeeded Perrie by warrant, 1717, April 30, and was obliged to the same method in visiting the islands. He has received his expenses, 1717-31, on this head from the collector of Barbados, but the Comptroller General cannot pass same in the collector's account for want of a proper authority. Birchfield, Surveyor General of the Northern Continent of America, had a treasury warrant, 1712, October 22, for 80*l*. per annum for sloop for above purpose. Therefore advise allowance of the amounts in question. 3 pages.

108. Sir Clement Cotterell to John Scrope, concerning the petition of Mustapha, secretary to the embassy from the Dey and Regency of Tunis to Great Britain. So the Algerine's son two years since; so the Tripoline's brother four year agoe; but in neither case, nor any other (except as before the Morocco Ambassador's) is the secretary distinguished from the rest of the servants. . . . He is pushed on to this by Sidi Mahomed, the other Envoy from Tunis, with a view to force the same gratuity for his secretary when he takes his leave. Jusuph Cogia has himself informed me of all their contrivances," but it is too paltry a story to trouble the Treasury with. Twickenham, July 25. 2 pages.

- August 21. 121. Memorial to the King from the Trustees for establishing the Colony of Georgia, signed by Benjamin Martyn, secretary. Memorialists found themselves immediately under a necessity to cultivate a strict friendship with Tomo Chachi Mico, or King of the Yamacraw, and with the other micos or kings and nations of the Upper and Lower Creeks, whose friendship is of the utmost consequence to the safety of Georgia, Carolina, and all the southern parts of His Majesty's dominions in America, especially at a time when the French were, according to the best advices, making proper dispositions to extend their borders and advance nearer to Carolina. To frustrate this it became necessary to build a fort among these Indians. At the request of Carolina, this treaty was negotiated by the Colony of Georgia, Carolina being still obnoxious to the Indians because of a long and bloody war formerly carried on. The consent of the Indians was obtained for building a fort among them on the only river over which the French can invade Carolina. The latter Province has voted 8,500*l.* of their currency = over 1,000*l.* sterling, to be raised in two years from 1735 towards same. The Trustees have already nearly expended the 10,000*l.* royal grant, and the private subscriptions, amounting to 5,350*l.* and there are near 1,000 souls in the Colony, 600 of which will perish if not subsisted till they

The friendship of the Creek nation is of the utmost consequence to all the southern frontiers of the continent of America, as appears by the memorial of the General Assembly of Carolina to the King, of April 9 last. Therefore pray charges of the passage and entertainment of above Indians and presents to them on their departure, as was practised in the late Queen's reign as regards the Five Nations.

CALENDARS OF STATE PAPERS, &c.

[IMPERIAL 8vo., cloth. Price 15s. each Volume or Part.]

As far back as the year 1800, a Committee of the House of Commons recommended that Indexes and Calendars should be made to the Public Records, and thirty-six years afterwards another Committee of the House of Commons reiterated that recommendation in more forcible words.

On 7 December, 1865, the Master of the Rolls stated to the Lords of the Treasury that although "the Records, State Papers, and Documents" in his charge constitute the most complete and perfect series of their "kind in the civilized world," and although "they are of the greatest value in a historical and constitutional point of view, yet they are comparatively useless to the public, from the want of proper Calendars and Indexes."

Their Lordships assented to the necessity of having Calendars prepared and printed, and empowered the Master of the Rolls to take such steps as might be necessary for this purpose.

The following Works have been already published in this Series :—

THE CHRONICLES AND MEMORIALS OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND DURING THE MIDDLE AGES.

[ROYAL 8VO. Price 10s. each Volume or Part.]

On 25 July 1822, the House of Commons presented an address to the Crown, stating that the editions of the works of our ancient historians were inconvenient and defective; that many of their writings still remained in manuscript, and, in some cases, in a single copy only. They added, "that an uniform and convenient edition of the whole, published under His Majesty's royal sanction, would be an undertaking honourable to His Majesty's reign, and conducive to the advancement of historical and constitutional knowledge; that the House therefore humbly besought His Majesty, that He would be graciously pleased to give such directions as His Majesty, in His wisdom, might think fit, for the publication of a complete edition of the ancient historians of this realm."

The Master of the Rolls, being very desirous that effect should be given to the resolution of the House of Commons, submitted to Her Majesty's Treasury in 1857 a plan for the publication of the ancient chronicles and memorials of the United Kingdom, and it was adopted accordingly.

Of the Chronicles and Memorials, the following volumes have been published. They embrace the period from the earliest time of British history down to the end of the reign of Henry VII.

1. THE CHRONICLES OF ENGLAND, by JOHN CAPGRAVE. Edited by the Rev. F. C. HINGESTON, M.A. 1858.

Capgrave's Chronicle extends from the creation of the world to the year 1417. As a record of the language spoken in Norfolk (being written in English), it is of considerable value.

2. CHRONICON MONASTERII DE ABINGDON. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH STEVENSON, M.A., Vicar of Leighton Buzzard. 1858.

This Chronicle traces the history of the monastery from its foundation by King Ina of Wessex, to the reign of Richard I. The author had access to the title deeds of the house, and incorporates into his history various charters of the Saxon kings, of great importance as illustrating not only the history of the locality but that of the kingdom.

3. LIVES OF EDWARD THE CONFESSOR. I.—La Estoire de Seint Aedward le Rei. II.—Vita Beati Edvardi Regis et Confessoris. III.—Vita Eduuardi Regis qui apud Westmonasterium requiescit. Edited by HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, Cambridge. 1858.

The first is a poem in Norman French, probably written in 1245. The second is an anonymous poem, written between 1440 and 1450, which is mainly valuable as a specimen of the Latin poetry of the time. The third, also by an anonymous author, was apparently written between 1066 and 1074.

4. MONUMENTA FRANCISCANA. Vol. I.—Thomas de Eccleston de Adventu Fratrum Minorum in Angliam. Adæ de Marisco Epistolæ. Regis- trum Fratrum Minorum Londoniæ, Edited by J. S. BREWER, M.A., Professor of English Literature, King's College, London. Vol. II.—De Adventu Minorum; re-edited, with additions. Chronicle of the Grey Friars. The ancient English version of the Rule of St. Francis. Abbreviatio Statutorum, 1451, &c. Edited by RICHARD HOWLETT, Barrister-at-Law. 1858, 1882.

The first volume contains original materials for the history of the settlement of the order of St. Francis in England, the letters of Adam de Marisco, and other papers. The second volume contains materials found since the first volume was published.

FASCICULI ZIZANIORUM MAGISTRI JOHANNIS WYCLIF CUM TRITICO. Ascribed to THOMAS NETTER, of WALDEN, Provincial of the Carmelite Order in England, and Confessor to King Henry the Fifth. Edited by the Rev. W. W. SHIRLEY, M.A., Tutor and late Fellow of Wadham College, Oxford. 1858.

This work gives the only contemporaneous account of the rise of the Lollards.

6. THE BUIK OF THE CRONICLIS OF SCOTLAND; OR, A METRICAL Version of the History of Hector Boece; by WILLIAM STEWART. Vols. I.-III. Edited by W. B. TURNBULL, Barrister-at-Law. 1858.

This is a metrical translation of a Latin Prose Chronicle, written in the first half of the 16th century. The narrative begins with the earliest legends and ends with the death of James I. of Scotland, and the "evil ending of the traitors that slew him." The peculiarities of the Scottish dialect are well illustrated in this version.

7. JOHANNIS CAPGRAVE LIBER DE ILLUSTRIBUS HENRICIS. Edited by the Rev. F. C. HINGESTON, M.A. 1858.

The first part relates only to the history of the Empire from the election of Henry I. the Fowler, to the end of the reign of the Emperor Henry VI. The second part is devoted to English history, from the accession of Henry I. in 1100, to 1446, which was the twenty-fourth year of the reign of Henry VI. The third part contains the lives of illustrious men who have borne the name of Henry in various parts of the world.

8. HISTORIA MONASTERII S. AUGUSTINI CANTUARIENSIS by THOMAS OF ELMHAM, formerly Monk and Treasurer of that Foundation. Edited by CHARLES HARDWICK, M.A., Fellow of St. Catharine's Hall, and Christian Advocate in the University of Cambridge. 1858.

This history extends from the arrival of St. Augustine in Kent until 1191.

9. EULOGIUM (HISTORIARUM SIVE TEMPORIS): Chronicon ab Orbe condito usque ad Annum Domini 1866; a monacho quodam Malmesbiriensi exaratum. Vols. I.-III. Edited by F. S. HAYDON, B.A. 1858-1863.

This is a Latin Chronicle extending from the Creation to the latter part of the reign of Edward III., written by a monk of Malmesbury, with a continuation to the year 1413.

10. MEMORIALS OF HENRY THE SEVENTH; Bernardi Andreæ Tholosatis Vita Regis Henrici Septimi; necnon alia quædam ad eundem Regem spectantia. Edited by JAMES GAIRDNER. 1858.

The contents of this volume are—(1) a life of Henry VII., by his poet Laureate and historiographer, Bernard André, of Toulouse, with some compositions in verse, of which he is supposed to have been the author; (2) the journals of Roger Machado during certain embassies to Spain and Brittany, the first of which had reference to the marriage of the King's son, Arthur, with Catharine of Arragon; (3) two curious reports by envoys sent to Spain in 1505 touching the succession to the Crown of Castile, and a project of marriage between Henry VII. and the Queen of Naples; and (4) an account of Philip of Castile's reception in England in 1506. Other documents of interest are given in an appendix.

11. MEMORIALS OF HENRY THE FIFTH. I.—Vita Henrici Quinti, Roberto Redmanno auctore. II.—Versus Rhythmici in laudem Regis Henrici Quinti. III.—Elmhami Liber Metricus de Henrico V. Edited by CHARLES A. COLE. 1858.

12. MUNIMENTÆ GILDHALLÆ LONDONIENSIS; Liber Albus, Liber Customarum, et Liber Horn, in archivis Gildhallæ asservati. Vol. I., Liber Albus. Vol. II. (in Two Parts), Liber Customarum. Vol. III., Translation of the Anglo-Norman Passages in Liber Albus, Glossaries, Appendices, and Index. Edited by HENRY THOMAS RILEY, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. 1859-1862.

The Liber Albus, compiled by John Carpenter, Common Clerk of the City of London in the year 1419, gives an account of the laws, regulations, and institutions of that City in the 12th, 13th, 14th, and early part of the 15th centuries. The Liber Customarum was compiled in the early part of the 14th century during the reign of Edward II. It also gives an account of the laws, regulations, and institutions of the City of London in the 12th, 13th, and early part of the 14th centuries.

13. CHRONICA JOHANNIS DE OXENEDES. Edited by SIR HENRY ELLIS, K.H. 1859.

Although this Chronicle tells of the arrival of Hengist and Horsa, it substantially begins with the reign of King Alfred, and comes down to 1392. It is particularly valuable for notices of events in the eastern portions of the Kingdom.

14. A COLLECTION OF POLITICAL POEMS AND SONGS RELATING TO ENGLISH HISTORY, FROM THE ACCESSION OF EDWARD III. TO THE REIGN OF HENRY VIII. Vols. I. and II. Edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A. 1859-1861.
15. The "OPUS TERTIUM," "OPUS MINUS," &c. of ROGER BACON. Edited by J. S. BREWER, M.A., Professor of English Literature, King's College, London. 1859.
16. BARTHOLOMÆI DE COTTON, MONACHI NORWICENSIS, HISTORIA ANGLICANA; 449-1298; necnon ejusdem Liber de Archiepiscopis et Episcopis Angliæ. Edited by HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, Cambridge, 1859.
17. BRUT Y TYWYSOGION; or, The Chronicle of the Princes of Wales. Edited by the REV. JOHN WILLIAMS AB ITHEL, M.A. 1860.

This work, written in the ancient Welsh language, begins with the abdication and death of Caedwala at Rome, in the year 681, and continues the history down to the subjugation of Wales by Edward I., about the year 1282.
18. A COLLECTION OF ROYAL AND HISTORICAL LETTERS DURING THE REIGN OF HENRY IV. 1399-1404. Edited by the Rev. F. C. HINGESTON, M.A. of Exeter College, Oxford. 1860.
19. THE REPRESSOR OF OVER MUCH BLAMING OF THE CLERGY. By REGINALD PECOCK, sometime Bishop of Chichester. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. CHURCHILL BABINGTON, B.D., Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge. 1860.

The "Repressor" may be considered the earliest piece of good theological disquisition of which our English prose literature can boast. The author was born about the end of the fourteenth century, consecrated Bishop of St. Asaph in the year 1444, and translated to the see of Chichester in 1450. His work is interesting chiefly because it gives a full account of the views of the Lollards, and it has great value for the philologist.
20. ANNALES CAMBRIÆ. Edited by the Rev. JOHN WILLIAMS AB ITHEL, M.A. 1860.

These annals, which are in Latin, commence in 447, and come down to 1286. The earlier portion appears to be taken from an Irish Chronicle used by Tigernach, and by the compiler of the Annals of Ulster.
21. THE WORKS OF GIRALDUS CAMBRENSIS. Vols. I.-IV. Edited by the Rev. J. S. BREWER, M.A., Professor of English Literature, King's College, London. Vols. V.-VII. Edited by the Rev. JAMES F. DIMOCK, M.A., Rector of Barnburgh, Yorkshire. Vol. VIII. Edited by GEORGE F. WARNER, M.A., of the Department of MSS., British Museum. 1861-1891.

These volumes contain the historical works of Gerald du Barry, who lived in the reigns of Henry II., Richard I., and John. His works are of a very miscellaneous nature, both in prose and verse, and are remarkable for the anecdotes which they contain. The Topographia Hibernica (in Vol. V.) is the result of Giraldus' two visits to Ireland, the first in 1183, the second in 1185-6, when he accompanied Prince John into that country. The Expugnatio Hibernica was written about 1188, and may be regarded rather as a great epic than a sober relation of acts occurring in his own days. Vol. VI. contains the Itinerarium Cambriæ et Descriptio Cambriæ; and Vol. VII. the lives of S. Remigius and S. Hugh. Vol. VIII. contains the Treatise De Principum Instructione, and an Index to Vols. I.-IV. and VIII.
22. LETTERS AND PAPERS ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE WARS OF THE ENGLISH IN FRANCE DURING THE REIGN OF HENRY THE SIXTH, KING OF ENGLAND, Vol. I., and Vol. II. (in Two Parts). Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH STEVENSON, M.A., Vicar of Leighton Buzzard. 1861-1864.
28. THE ANGLO-SAXON CHRONICLE, ACCORDING TO THE SEVERAL ORIGINAL AUTHORITIES. Vol. I., Original Texts. Vol. II., Translation. Edited and translated by BENJAMIN THORPE, Member of the Royal Academy of Sciences at Munich, and of the Society of Netherlandish Literature at Leyden. 1861.

There are at present six independent manuscripts of the Saxon Chronicle, ending in different years, and written in different parts of the country. In this edition, the text of each manuscript is printed in columns on the same page, so that the student may see at a glance the various changes which occur in orthography.

24. LETTERS AND PAPERS ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE REIGNS OF RICHARD III. AND HENRY VII. Vols. I. and II. Edited by JAMES GARDINER. 1861-1868.

The principal contents of the volumes are some diplomatic Papers of Richard III., correspondence between Henry VII. and Ferdinand and Isabella of Spain; documents relating to Edmund de la Pole, Earl of Suffolk; and a portion of the correspondence of James IV. of Scotland.

25. LETTERS OF BISHOP GROSSETESTE. Edited by the Rev. HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, Cambridge. 1861.

The letters of Robert Grosseteste range in date from about 1210 to 1263, and relate to matters connected not only with the political history of England during the reign of Henry III., but with its ecclesiastical condition. They refer especially to the diocese of Lincoln, of which Grosseteste was bishop.

26. DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE OF MANUSCRIPTS RELATING TO THE HISTORY OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND. Vol. I. (in Two Parts); Anterior to the Norman Invasion. (Out of Print.) Vol. II.; 1066-1200. Vol. III.; 1200-1827. By SIR THOMAS DUFFUS HARDY, D.C.L., Deputy Keeper of the Records. 1862-1871.

The object of this work is to publish notices of all known sources of British history, both printed and unprinted, in one continued sequence. The materials, when historical (as distinguished from biographical), are arranged under the year in which the latest event is recorded in the chronicle or history, and not under the period in which its author, real or supposed, flourished. Biographies are enumerated under the year in which the person commemorated died, and not under the year in which the life was written. A brief analysis of each work has been added when deserving it, in which original portions are distinguished from mere compilations. A biographical sketch of the author of each piece has been added, and a brief notice of such British authors as have written on historical subjects.

27. ROYAL AND OTHER HISTORICAL LETTERS ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE REIGN OF HENRY III. Vol. I., 1216-1235. Vol. II., 1236-1272. Selected and edited by the Rev. W. W. SHIRLEY, D.D., Regius Professor of Ecclesiastical History, and Canon of Christ Church, Oxford. 1862-1866.

28. CHRONICA MONASTERII S. ALBANI.—1. THOME WALSINGHAM HISTORIA ANGLICANA; Vol. I., 1272-1381: Vol. II., 1381-1422. 2. WILLELMI RISHANGER CHRONICA ET ANNALES, 1259-1307. 3. JOHANNIS DE TROKELowe ET HENRICI DE BLANEFORDE CHRONICA ET ANNALES 1259-1296; 1307-1324; 1392-1406. 4. GESTA ABBATUM MONASTERII S. ALBANI, A THOMA WALSINGHAM, REGNANTE RICARDO SECUNDO, EJUSDEM ECCLESIE PRECENTORE, COMPILATA; Vol. I., 798-1290: Vol. II., 1290-1849: Vol. III., 1849-1411. 5. JOHANNIS AMUNDESHAM, MONACHI MONASTERII S. ALBANI, UT VIDETUR, ANNALES; Vols. I. and II. 6. REGISTRA QUORUNDAM ABBATUM MONASTERII S. YPODIGMA NEUSTRIÆ A THOMA WALSINGHAM, QUONDAM MONACHO MONASTERII S. ALBANI, CONSCRIPTUM. Edited by HENRY THOMAS RILEY, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. 1868-1876.

In the first two volumes is a History of England, from the death of Henry III. to the death of Henry V., by Thomas Walsingham, Precentor of St. Albans.

In the 3rd volume is a Chronicle of English History, attributed to William Rishanger, who lived in the reign of Edward I.: an account of transactions attending the award of the kingdom of Scotland to John Balliol, 1291-1293, also attributed to William Rishanger, but on no sufficient ground: a short Chronicle of English History, 1293 to 1300, by an unknown hand: a short Chronicle, Willelmi Rishanger Gesta Edwardi Primi, Regis Angliæ, with Annales Regum Angliæ, probably by the same hand: and fragments of three Chronicles of English History, 1285 to 1307.

In the 4th volume is a Chronicle of English History, 1259 to 1296: Annals of Edward II., 1307 to 1333, by John de Trokelowe, a monk of St. Albans, and a continuation of Trokelowe's Annals, 1333, 1334, by Henry de Blanford: a full Chronicle of English History, 1393 to 1406 and an account of the benefactors of St. Albans, written in the early part of the 15th century.

The 5th, 6th, and 7th volumes contain a history of the Abbots of St. Albans, 798 to 1411, mainly compiled by Thomas Walsingham, with a Continuation.

The 8th and 9th volumes, in continuation of the Annals, contain a Chronicle probably of John Amundesham, a monk of St. Albans.

The 10th and 11th volumes relate especially to the acts and proceedings of Abbots Whethamstede, Albon, and Wallingford.

The 13th volume contains a compendious History of England to the reign of Henry V., and of Normandy in early times, also by Thomas Walsingham, and dedicated to Henry V.

29. CHRONICON ABBATILÆ EVESHAMENSIS, AUCTORIBUS DOMINICO PRIORE EVESHAMIE ET THOMA DE MARLEBERGE ABBATE, A FUNDATIONE AD ANNUM 1213, UNA CUM CONTINUATIONE AD ANNUM 1418. Edited by the Rev. W. D. MACRAY, Bodleian Library, Oxford. 1868.

The Chronicle of Evesham illustrates the history of that important monastery from about 890 to 1418. Its chief feature is an autobiography, which makes us acquainted with the inner daily life of a great abbey. Interspersed are many notices of general, personal, and local history.

30. RICARDI DE CIRENCESTRIA SPECULUM HISTORIALE DE GESTIS REGUM ANGLIÆ. Vol. I., 447-871. Vol. II., 872-1066. Edited by JOHN E. B. MAYOR, M.A., Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge. 1868-1869.

Richard of Cirencester's history, in four books, extends from 447 to 1066. It gives many charters in favour of Westminster Abbey, and a very full account of the lives and miracles of the saints, especially of Edward the Confessor, whose reign occupies the fourth book. A treatise on the Coronation, by William of Sudbury, a monk of Westminster, fills book ii. c. 3.

31. YEAR BOOKS OF THE REIGNS OF EDWARD THE FIRST AND EDWARD THE THIRD. Years 20-21, 21-22, 80-81, 82-88, and 88-85 Edw. I.; and 11-12 Edw. III. Edited and translated by ALFRED JOHN HORWOOD, Barrister-at-Law. Years 12-18, 18-14, 14, 14-15, 15 and 16 Edward III. Edited and translated by LUKE OWEN PIKE, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. 1868-1896.

The "Year Books" are the earliest of our Law Reports. They contain matter not only of practical utility to lawyers in the present day, but also illustrative of almost every branch of history, while for certain philological purposes they hold a position absolutely unique.

32. NARRATIVES OF THE EXPULSION OF THE ENGLISH FROM NORMANDY, 1449-1450.—Robertus Blondelli de Reductione Normanniæ: Le Recouvrement de Normandie, par Berry, Hérault du Roy: Conferences between the Ambassadors of France and England. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH STEVENSON, M.A. 1868.

33. HISTORIA ET CARTULARIUM MONASTERII S. PETRI GLOUCESTRÆ. Vols. I., II., and III. Edited by W. H. HART, F.S.A., Membre Correspondant de la Société des Antiquaires de Normandie. 1868-1867.

34. ALEXANDRI NECKAM DE NATURIS RERUM LIBRI DUO; with NECKAM'S POEM, DE LAUDIBUS DIVINÆ SAPIENTIÆ. Edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A. 1868.

In the De Naturis Rerum are to be found what may be called the rudiments of many sciences mixed up with much error and ignorance. Neckam had his own views in morals, and in giving us a glimpse of them, as well as of his other opinions, he throws much light upon the manners, customs, and general tone of thought prevalent in the twelfth century.

35. LEECHDOMS, WORTCUNNING, AND STARCRAFT OF EARLY ENGLAND; being a Collection of Documents illustrating the History of Science in this Country before the Norman Conquest. Vols. I.-III. Collected and edited by the Rev. T. OSWALD COCKAYNE, M.A. 1864-1866.

36. ANNALES MONASTICI. Vol. I.:—Annales de Margan, 1066-1282; Annales de Theokesberia, 1066-1268; Annales de Burton, 1004-1268. Vol. II.:—Annales Monasterii de Wintonia, 519-1277; Annales Monasterii de Waverleia, 1-1291. Vol. III.:—Annales Prioratus de Dunstaplia, 1-1297. Annales Monasterii de Bermundeseia, 1042-1482. Vol. IV.:—Annales Monasterii de Oseneia, 1016-1847; Chronicon vulgo dictum Chronicon Thomæ Wykes, 1066-1289; Annales Prioratus de Wigornia, 1-1877. Vol. V.:—Index and Glossary. Edited by HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, and Registry of the University, Cambridge. 1864-1869.

The present collection embraces chronicles compiled in religious houses in England during the thirteenth century. These distinct works are ten in number. The extreme period which they embrace ranges from the year 1 to 1492.

87. MAGNA VITA S. HUGONIS EPISCOPI LINCOLNIENSIS. Edited by the Rev. JAMES F. DIMOCK, M.A., Rector of Barnburgh, Yorkshire. 1864.

This work is valuable, not only as a biography of a celebrated ecclesiastic but as the work of a man, who, from personal knowledge, gives notices of passing events, as well as of individuals who were then taking active part in public affairs.

88. CHRONICLES AND MEMORIALS OF THE REIGN OF RICHARD THE FIRST. Vol. I.:—ITINERARIUM PEREGRINORUM ET GESTA REGIS RICARDI. Vol. II.:—EPISTOLÆ CANTUARIENSES; the Letters of the Prior and Convent of Christ Church, Canterbury; 1187 to 1199. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Vicar of Navestock, Essex, and Lambeth Librarian. 1864-1845.

The authorship of the Chronicle in Vol. I., hitherto ascribed to Geoffrey Vinesani, is now more correctly ascribed to Richard, Canon of the Holy Trinity of London.

The letters in Vol. II., written between 1187 and 1199, had their origin in a dispute which arose from the attempts of Baldwin and Hubert, archbishops of Canterbury, to found a college of secular canons, a project which gave great umbrage to the monks of Canterbury.

89. RECUEIL DES CRONIKES ET ANCHIENNES ISTORIES DE LA GRANT BRETAGNE A PRESENT NOMME ENGLETERRE, par JEHAN DE WAURIN. Vol. I. Albina to 688. Vol. II., 1899-1422. Vol. III., 1422-1481. Edited by WILLIAM HARDY, F.S.A. 1864-1879. Vol. IV., 1481-1447. Vol. V., 1447-1471. Edited by Sir WILLIAM HARDY, F.S.A., and EDWARD L. C. P. HARDY, F.S.A. 1884-1891.

40. A COLLECTION OF THE CHRONICLES AND ANCIENT HISTORIES OF GREAT BRITAIN, NOW CALLED ENGLAND, by JOHN DE WAURIN. Vol. I., Albina to 688. Vol. II., 1899-1422. Vol. III., 1422-1481. (Translations of the preceding Vols. I., II., and III.) Edited and translated by Sir WILLIAM HARDY, F.S.A., and EDWARD L. C. P. HARDY, F.S.A. 1864-1891.

41. POLYCHRONICON RANULPHI HIGDEN, with Trevisa's Translation. Vols. I. and II. Edited by CHURCHILL BABINGTON, B.D., Senior Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge. Vols. III.-IX. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH RAWSON LUMBY, D.D., Norrisian Professor of Divinity, Vicar of St. Edward's, Fellow of St. Catharine's College, and late Fellow of Magdalene College, Cambridge. 1865-1886.

This chronicle begins with the creation, and is brought down to the reign of Edward III. It enables us to form a very fair estimate of the knowledge of history and geography which well-informed readers of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries possessed, for it was then the standard work on general history.

The two English translations, which are printed with the original Latin, afford interesting illustrations of the gradual change of our language, for one was made in the fourteenth century, the other in the fifteenth.

42. LE LIVRE DE REIS DE BRITTANIE E LE LIVRE DE REIS DE ENGLETERRE. Edited by the Rev. JOHN GLOVER, M.A., Vicar of Brading, Isle of Wight, formerly Librarian of Trinity College, Cambridge. 1865.

These two treatises are valuable as careful abstracts of previous historians. Some various readings are given which are interesting to the philologist as instances of semi-Saxonised French.

43. CHRONICA MONASTERII DE MELSA AB ANNO 1150 USQUE AD ANNUM 1406, Vols. I.-III. Edited by EDWARD AUGUSTUS BOND, Assistant Keeper of Manuscripts, and Egerton Librarian, British Museum. 1866-1868.

The Abbey of Meaux was a Cistercian house, and the work of its abbot is a faithful and often minute record of the establishment of a religious community, of its progress in forming an ample revenue, of its struggles to maintain its acquisitions, and of its relations to the governing institutions of the country.

44. MATTHÆI PARISIENSIS HISTORIA ANGLORUM, SIVE UT VULGO DICITUR, HISTORIA MINOR. Vols. I., II., and III. 1067-1258. Edited by Sir FREDERICK MADDEN, K.H., Keeper of the Manuscript Department of the British Museum. 1866-1869.

45. LIBER MONASTERII DE HYDA: A CHRONICLE AND CHARTULARY OF HYDE ABBEY, WINCHESTER, 455-1023. Edited by EDWARD EDWARDS. 1866.

The "Book of Hyde" is a compilation from much earlier sources which are usually indicated with considerable care and precision. In many cases, however, the Hyde Chronicler appears to correct, to qualify, or to amplify the statements which, in substance, he adopts.

There is to be found, in the "Book of Hyde," much information relating to the reign of King Alfred which is not known to exist elsewhere. The volume contains some curious specimens of Anglo-Saxon and mediæval English.

46. CHRONICON SCOTORUM; A CHRONICLE OF IRISH AFFAIRS, from the earliest times to 1185; and SUPPLEMENT, containing the events from 1141 to 1150. Edited, with Translation, by WILLIAM MAUNSELL HENNESSY, M.R.I.A. 1866.
47. THE CHRONICLE OF PIERRE DE LANGTOFT, IN FRENCH VERSE, FROM THE EARLIEST PERIOD TO THE DEATH OF EDWARD I. Vols. I and II. Edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A. 1866-1868.

It is probable that Pierre de Langtoft was a canon of Bridlington, in Yorkshire, and lived in the reign of Edward I., and during a portion of the reign of Edward II. This chronicle is divided into three parts; in the first, is an abridgment of Geoffrey of Monmouth's "Historia Britonum"; in the second, a history of the Anglo-Saxon and Norman kings, to the death of Henry III.; in the third, a history of the reign of Edward I. The language is a curious specimen of the French of Yorkshire.
48. THE WAR OF THE GAENDHIL WITH THE GAILL, OR THE INVASIONS OF IRELAND BY THE DANES AND OTHER NORSEMEN. Edited, with a Translation, by the Rev. JAMES HENTHORN TODD, D.D., Senior Fellow of Trinity College, and Regius Professor of Hebrew in the University of Dublin. 1867.

The work in its present form, in the editor's opinion, is a comparatively modern version of an ancient original. The story is told after the manner of the Scandinavian Sagas.
49. GESTA REGIS HENRICI SECUNDI BENEDICTI ABBATIS. CHRONICLE OF THE REIGNS OF HENRY II. AND RICHARD I., 1169-1192, known under the name of BENEDICT OF PETERBOROUGH. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History, Oxford, and Lambeth Librarian. 1867.
50. MUNIMENTA ACADEMICA, OR, DOCUMENTS ILLUSTRATIVE OF ACADEMICAL LIFE AND STUDIES AT OXFORD (in Two Parts). Edited by the Rev. HENRY ANSTEE, M.A., Vicar of St. Wendron, Cornwall, and late Vice-Principal of St. Mary Hall, Oxford. 1868.
51. CHRONICA MAGISTRI ROGERI DE HOVEDENE. Vols. I.-IV. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History, and Fellow of Oriol College, Oxford. 1868-1871.

The earlier portion, extending from 792 to 1148, appears to be a copy of a compilation made in Northumbria about 1161, to which Hoveden added little. From 1148 to 1169—a very valuable portion of this work—the matter is derived from another source, to which Hoveden appears to have supplied little. From 1170 to 1192 is the portion which corresponds to some extent with the Chronicle known under the name of Benedict of Peterborough (see No. 49). From 1192 to 1201 may be said to be wholly Hoveden's work.
52. WILLELMI MALMESBIRIENSIS MONACHI DE GESTIS PONTIFICUM ANGLORUM LIBRI QUINQUE. Edited by N. E. S. A. HAMILTON, of the Department of Manuscripts, British Museum. 1870.

54. THE ANNALS OF LOCH CÉ. A CHRONICLE OF IRISH AFFAIRS, FROM 1041 to 1590. Vols. I. and II. Edited, with a Translation, by WILLIAM MAUNSELL HENNESSY, M.R.I.A. 1871.

WORKS PUBLISHED IN PHOTOZINCOGRAPHY.

DOMESDAY BOOK, or the GREAT SURVEY OF ENGLAND OF WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR, 1086; fac-simile of the Part relating to each county, separately (with a few exceptions of double counties). Photozincographed at the Ordnance Survey Office, Southampton, by Colonel Sir HENRY JAMES, R.E., F.R.S., DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, under the superintendence of W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Record Keeper. 35 Parts, imperial quarto and demy quarto (1861-1863), boards.

Domesday Survey is in two parts or volumes. The first in folio, contains the counties of Bedford, Berks, Bucks, Cambridge, Chester, and Lancaster, Cornwall, Derby, Devon, Dorset, Gloucester, Hants, Hereford, Herts, Huntingdon, Kent, Leicester and Rutland, Lincoln, Middlesex, Northampton, Nottingham, Oxford, Salop, Somerset, Stafford, Surrey, Sussex, Warwick, Wilts, Worcester, and York. The second volume, in quarto, contains the counties of Essex, Norfolk and Suffolk.

Domesday Book was printed verbatim et literatim during the last century, in consequence of an address of the House of Lords to King George III. in 1767. It was not, however, commenced until 1773, and was completed early in 1783. In 1860, Her Majesty's Government, with the concurrence of the Master of the Rolls, determined to apply the art of photozincography in the production of a fac-simile of Domesday Book.

This work forms a comprehensive Palæographic Series for Ireland. It furnishes characteristic specimens of the documents which have come down from each of the classes which, in past ages, formed principal elements in the population of Ireland, or exercised an influence in her affairs. With these reproductions are combined fac-similes of writings connected with eminent personages or transactions of importance in the annals of the country to the early part of the eighteenth century.

The specimens have been reproduced as nearly as possible in accordance with the originals, in dimensions, colouring, and general appearance. Characteristic examples of styles of writing and caligraphic ornamentation are, as far as practicable, associated with subjects of historic and linguistic interest. Descriptions of the various manuscripts are given by the Editor in the Introduction. The contents of the specimens are fully elucidated and printed in the original languages, opposite to the Fac-similes—line for line—without contractions—thus facilitating reference and aiding effectively those interested in palæographic studies.

In the work are also printed in full, for the first time, many original and important historical documents.

Part I. commences with the earliest Irish MSS. extant.

Part II. : From the Twelfth Century to A.D. 1299.

Part III. : From A.D. 1300 to end of reign of Henry VIII.

Part IV. 1 : From reign of Edward VI. to that of James I.

In Part IV. 2 the work is carried down to the early part of the eighteenth century, with Index to the entire publication.
